How Is Your Heart?

Is your pulse weak, too slow, too fast, or does it skip a beat? Do you have shortness of breath, weak or hungry spells, fainting, smothering or choking spells, palpitation, fluttering, pains around the heart, in side and shoulder; or hurt when lying on left side?

If you have any of these symptoms your heart is weak or diseased, and cannot get better without assistance.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure strengthens weak hearts, and rarely ever fails to cure heart disease. Try it, and see how quickly you will find relief.

"About January 1st, 1902, I took down with weakness and dropsy, and gradually grew worse. I was told by my family physician that my case was hopeless. My neighbors and family had given me up to die. My limbs and body were swollen to one-third larger than normal size, and water had collected around my heart. For at least three months I had to sit propped up in bed to keep from smothering. I sent for five bottles of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, and by the time I had taken them all I was entirely cured. I feel better than I have in twenty years, and I am able to do any kind of work on my farm. My attending physician told me that if it hadn't been for Dr. Miles' Heart Cure I would now be in my grave."

L. F. CURT, Wilmore, Ky.
Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails he will refund your money.

An Awful Cough Cured.

"Two years ago our little girl had a touch of pneumonia, which left her with an awful cough. She had spells of coughing, just like one with the whooping cough and some thought she would not get well at all. We got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which acted like a charm. She stopped coughing and got stout and fat," writes Mrs. Ora Bussard, Brubaker, Ill. This remedy is for sale by Dr. C. H. Jones, Druggist, Dahlonega, Ga.

Story Sent In.

A young man not a thousand miles from here went with his sister to a dry goods store. He purchased a pair of gloves for his sweetheart. The sister bought a pair of hose for herself. Of course the clerk got them mixed. The explosion came when the sweetheart heart opened the package. She blushed. The note read:

"I am sending you a little present. O, how I wish no other hands than mine would ever be permitted to touch them after you put them on. But, alas! a score of fellows may touch them when I am not by your side, and other eyes may see them when you are on the streets or at parties. I bought the longest pair I could get, and if they are too long you may let them wrinkle down. A great many girls I know wear them slipped down a little. Always wear them at parties. I want to see how they fit when I call Tuesday night 'to see how they fitted,' but it is understood that he failed to win a home for himself.—Ex.

It was a singular coincidence that one of the first settlers at Rangeley, Me., Timothy Tibbetts, who was born in the year 1812, the twelfth month and the twelfth day of the month, was buried on the twelfth day of the twelfth month of the year 1872.

Local Items.

If everybody would look to the interest of the public generally and not to their own too much, there would be better times in old Lumpkin. There is a man in Dahlonega who is fighting the establishment of one of the rural mail routes in this county because it effects his interest, and who, at the same time, is highly in favor of another route because he wants one of his relatives to get the job of carrying it.

There is no doubt, in our mind, but what there are men who are trying to preach the gospel that do more harm than good, and when it is found that one is not doing right he should be relieved of his gospel robe and caused to make his living by a move of the hands instead of the tongue. If this was done it would restore confidence among the people and build up the cause of religion.

Take that preacher for instance, who sold six bushels of corn to one of his neighbors at one dollar per bushel, taking the man's bull as security. When the time was up the poor fellow was unable to raise the six dollars and the preacher took his animal and then went and sold it for eighteen dollars, not only making a big profit on his corn, but twelve dollars on the bull. Query—Should preachers do this way?

George Disch, a carpenter at the Mount City Coffin Company, in St. Louis, Mo., toppled over in a coffin he was making. He was driving a nail in the end when he was suddenly stricken. His hammer fell from his hand; then his fellow-workmen saw him clutch wildly at the air, and drop into the casket face downward. Workmen ran to him, but he was unable to speak. A physician found life extinct and pronounced it a case of heart disease.

Rev. J. N. Austin's Trip.

MR. EDITOR: I made a business trip through Hall and to the south-east corner of Jackson county and found all the people in good heart. The cotton is short to what it was last year, but a better price. Plenty to eat and everybody sober. On the whole trip I never saw a man intoxicated—people working all day and going to meeting at night.

I had on the way one little spat, by way of argument—turned my man down and the crowd laughed and my man got mad, and I told him, "Except you repent you shall likewise perish," and he was a preacher, too. You know what he wanted to do with me, but when I proved, by reasoning with him, that I believed stronger in his mode than he did and he got out of fix. But it is so. I believe in the mode and he believed in the man. God bless them all. We will all go to heaven if we do right. If we don't, we will all go to hell.

So let us Methodist and Baptist love and help each other and stay where we are and work together to honor God and help our fellow-men and we will have better times, less drunkenness, quarreling, fighting and stealing, in country. We are all of one blood anyway and ought to be of one mind, religiously. God save our people and nation. I would preach more if I could, but I have to work for my bread. But that's all right. God save us all and the editor.

Good wishes to THE NUGGET and its patrons. Come on.

Respectfully,
J. N. AUSTIN.

A pathetic story comes from Ooltbrook, Conn. For many years Rev. Mr. Taylor had been totally blind. During all the time he prayed for a restoration of his sight. The other morning he awakened and was astonished to see the bright sunlight streaming through his window. Going to the window he looked out and saw the trees and fields and houses, as he had seen them many years before. Falling on his knees he poured out his heart in gratitude.

for the great boon that had been vouchsafed to him. But his great joy was too much for his brain. And before nightfall he had really become a raving maniac.

We dislike to see "poor quality." The other day we saw a girl pass a poor but honest person of her acquaintance without raising her head. In a few steps she met a man of better circumstance when she spoke with her face all covered with smiles. And right then this girl likely owed for the horse she wore.

"Humpty" Stephens died very suddenly down in Dawson county the other day, being sick only an hour or so. This man was badly crippled and made a living mostly by keeping a blind tiger—not very blind either, for he lived near Lumpkin camp ground and was always ready to quench the thirst of all who wished anything stronger than water—and that was many—during the annual meetings.

Will Sims, the outlaw of Bryan county, was killed the other day by the sheriff and posse. He had killed two men, and while a Coroner's jury was being held over one of his victims, Sims sent in a note saying that he would not be arrested. He was found at his father-in-law's house, and shot at the sheriff twice before he was killed. Fourteen bullets ended the career of this much dreaded man in that county.

It's right funny. The agent of a certain candidate for governor the other day wanted to know what we would publish his man's speech for and send him a thousand copies of THE NUGGET, and because we would not do it for a very nominal sum he said we were too high. We are not in the printing business for our health and if a candidate for governor wants his claims put before the people in this paper he may expect to pay us a reasonable sum for our work, just like candidates for county officers or any one else.

Garnered T. B. Eldridge. Want No Hogs in Dahlonega.

We notice that it is the desire of some to have the city council pass an ordinance not allowing any hogs to be kept within the corporate limits, which if passed would go to the Superior court, because the owners of hogs pay taxes on them and have a right to keep them where they please unless a nuisance is created. The state gives them this right and the city council cannot pass an ordinance legally that conflicts with the state law. People pay on many worthless dogs that really disturb other persons by howling at night and entering dwellings and carrying off nice hams of meat some times. There is no kick about them. Hogs are of much value and hurt no one when the sanitary law is complied with, unless it is for the want of them. This law is complied with and because some people don't want them why do they wish to take them away from those who do? In the progressive city of Gainesville, with her electric street cars, two railroads, cotton factory and many people, those desiring keep hogs there in pens only about 80 feet square.

Attorney General Hart has decided that the late act in reference to the money arising from the convict hire does not nullify the action of the grand juries last year, and will cover a period of two years. So the money coming from this source to Lumpkin county next year will still be spent on the public roads in accordance with the wish of the first grand jury acting, as no subsequent grand jury has any right to change this application of the fund.

Watch for H. D. Gurley's greatly reduced prices next week. He means to save his customers' money on hundreds of articles.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral certainly cures coughs, colds, bronchitis, consumption. And it certainly strengthens weak throats and weak lungs. There can be no mistake about this. You know it is true. And your own doctor will say so.

Meaders & Sons Interesting Talk.

In the fall of the year, when you are changing the stock from green to dry food, the stomach needs a stimulant to keep it to overcome the loss of the great amount of soft, sappy, food suddenly cut off.

The above change of food often causes cows to almost dry up their milk.

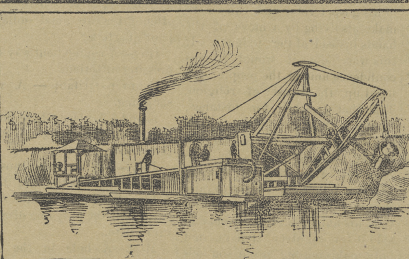

Weakly chickens need a tonic to help them start on their egg producing business.

Hogs, when they are taken off the pasture and penned up, often will not eat enough to get fat, or the food does not do them much good, with the exercise they get.

Under all of the above conditions of stock, International Stock Food remedies are the best that can be used, we firmly believe. It will prevent hog and chicken cholera. It will help materially to save the cow from going dry. It will cause the horse and colt to eat heartily and assist them to get more benefit from the food eaten. It will kill the worms that cause them to droop and their hair to look rough and dead. The packages are sold at 25c, 50c, $1.00 and $3.50. Kept by B. E. Meaders & Sons.

We can mention several people in and near Dahlonega—not of some 1,000 miles—who will tell you that these remedies are all we claim for them.

Found Wife in the Mountains.

Some of the old bachelors in this city can learn a useful lesson from the example of Mr. Chas. L. Patton, of Commerce No. 20. One day last week Mr. Patton hooked his mule to a one horse wagon, put on a frame and sheet and left for parts unknown. No one knew why he left, where he went, nor the purpose of his mission. He drove up into Lumpkin county and was quietly married to Miss Lee, a beautiful mountain girl, robust, with a beautiful form, an iron will, pearly white teeth and rosy cheeks. Last Sabbath he came driving in with his beautiful blushing bride and introduced her to the members of the home. Monday morning she went with him to the cotton patch and took her first lesson in picking cotton. Here is an illustration of happiness and contentment personified. If we wanted a wife to share our sorrows and joys, one that would be a helpmeet in every way, and one that would always be loyal and true, we would much prefer the blushing mountain girl with rose tinted lips and a character that is as pure as the rays of the sun, to the cultured society duds who banquet at the late hour club and presides gracefully at the punch bowl and card table. —Commerce News.

They had a fiddlers' convention down at Swainsboro, Ga., last week. Many people were present and everybody enjoyed themselves.

GOING OUT OF BUSINESS.
NOTICE TO EVERYBODY

I have fully made up my mind to go out of the mercantile business at Auraria, and want to close out the entire stock by January 1st, 1906.

My entire line of dry goods, notions, hats and groceries, will be sold cheap for cash, and a great many things below cost.

I have been in business here for over 28 years and am tired of the business, and want to devote my time more to gold mining. I mean to sell, and those who are looking for bargains can get them here.

To those who owe me, either by note or account, will please come at once and settle up, or after 30 days from date, same will be put in the hands of a collecting officer for collection.

This store building and fixtures will be for rent after January 1st, 1906, and the right man can do a nice business here, and I shall be pleased to let the same to any good upright person.

Very respectfully,
JOEL T. MILLER.

Truths that Strike Home

Your grocer is honest and—if he cares to do so—can tell you that he knows very little about the bulk coffee he sells you. How can he know, where it originally came from, how it was blended—or with what—or when roasted? If you buy your coffee loose by the pound, how can you expect purity and uniform quality?

LION COFFEE, the LEADER of ALL PACKAGE COFFEES, is of necessity uniform in quality, strength and flavor. For OVER A QUARTER of a CENTURY, LION COFFEE has been the standard coffee in millions of homes.

LION COFFEE is carefully packed at our factories, and until opened in your home, has no chance of being adulterated, or of coming in contact with dust, germs, or unclean hands.

In each package of LION COFFEE you get one full pound of Pure Coffee. Insist upon getting the genuine. (Lion head on every package.)

(Save the Lion-heads for valuable premiums.)

Wounds, Bruises and Burns.

By applying an antiseptic dressing to wounds, bruises, burns and like injuries before inflammation sets in, they may be healed without maturation and in about one-third the time required by the old treatment. This is the greatest discovery and triumph of modern surgery. Chamberlain's Pain Balm acts on this same principle. It is an antiseptic and when applied to such injuries, causes them to heal very quickly. It also allays the pain and soreness and prevents any danger of blood poisoning. Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your home and it will save you time and money, not to mention the inconvenience and suffering such injuries entail. For sale by Dr. C. H. Jones, Druggist, Dahlonega, Ga.

Local News.

Dr. Crawford, the dentist, will be here tomorrow.

If you are owning Mr. E. E. Crismon anything it will be to your interest to read his notice elsewhere.

The first rain here for several weeks fell on Friday night. The farmers have had a pretty time for saving their fodder.

Gen. Hardin, of Kentucky, came in last Sunday. The General is very sociable, jovial and clever and his many friends here are always glad to have him visit Dah-lonega.

Jeweler G. H. McGuire has sent off after a lot of musical instruments, and Judge Evans has had us to print a lot of license. Getting ready for holiday music and marriages.

At John H. Moore's you will find Pratt's Food for cows, horses, hogs and sheep. Also Worm powders for stock. It has been in use 30 years and never fails to give satisfaction.

The party here, who has been giving checks on the bank and no money on deposit is going to get in to trouble, and we learn that the bank will not take any more deposits from him hereafter.

The report that Mr. Jake Duckett, formerly of Lumpkin county, was recently killed in Arkansas, is a mistake. We got a letter from him last week and he says that he is all right, and is having a good time, generally.

Although it was cloudy, muggy and threatening rain last Sunday morning, a number of young people of Dahlonga drove eight miles over to Yellow Creek camp ground to meeting, where they could have heard a good sermon here at home.

Mr. C. M. Moore has from time to time picked up several Indian relics on his farm, a few miles above Dahlonga. The last one was an arrow head, made out of some kind of stone, it looks like, but nothing is found in this section now that resembles the same kind of material.

Our farmers and their families, who are big enough to pick cotton, are now busy every day in the field. Mr. John Sammons, living near Auraria, has a couple of little daughters that seem to be in the lead. One day last week Miss Katie, 12 years of age, picked 116 pounds, and her sister, Miss Amanda, gathered 125 pounds.

Hon. Carl Shultz was in Dahlonga last Sunday. He has had a busy time of it. He planted a crop in the eastern portion of this county and while not engaged in teaching school filled the soil. Then he served his term in the legislature, and when the session was over he returned and finished up his school, which ended last Saturday. Industries young men like Mr. Shultz, are bound to succeed in life.

Very often when old persons wish to make out a claim for a pension, they have trouble about proving their marriage. If every man marrying would get his license as soon as he is wedded and recorded, it would save all this trouble, and keep the ordinary's office from being crowded with so many papers. The license or certificate is yours; you pay for it, and can secure the same from your ordinary as soon as the marriage goes on record.

Occasionally some blockaders get so full of their mountain juice that they become bold and cheeky. The other day one came to town in this condition and got within a stones throw of the court house and supplied one of the members of the church with what whiskey he wanted, and then came to us and requested that we send him The Nugget on a credit, and at the same time, having the money in his pocket. It is pretty bold for a man to come right into town to open daylight and sell out his liquor regardless of the city, state or United States laws.

Col. Lilly attended Union Superior court this week.

Anderson & Jones will have a nice line of ladies' hats in a little later on.

Another rural route inspector will be here in a few days to look over the routes not already inspected.

Wanted by R. R. Meaders & Sons.—Twenty pounds of new goose feathers for which the cash will be paid.

On Saturday night Mr. Wylie Brady, of this county, was married to Miss Ella White, a daughter of Mr. Will White, of Hall county.

A box supper will be given at Etowah church on Saturday night, the 21st inst., the proceeds of which will be used in ceiling the church. Everybody invited.

Mr. Bill Wilkins, a former citizen of Lumpkin county, after trying Walker county awhile, has decided to return to the mountains again. He likes this section best.

The tax collector begins his first round today, commencing at Yahoola. Any person desiring to pay taxes during court week can do so by calling at J. E. McGee's store.

Judge Evans has dropped Rose Elrod, col., from the paupers list. She not only set well filled tables for the preacher occasionally, but fed others all the time free of charge. This explains it.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard Blackwell came up from Atlanta and spent a short while in Dahlonga last Monday. Mr. Blackwell used to carry the police club in Dahlonga. He is now engineer on a railroad.

The report of City Marshal Walker last Monday night made to the council, showed that he had collected for the month of September $161.85 as follows: Sanitary $10.00, Street tax, $30.00, Dog tax, $4.00, Fines, $8.00. Amount collected in work, $6.00.

Martin Bryant and Wylie Lee, two parties whose trials were set for the 18th, charged with making blockade liquor, passed through Dahlonga last Monday on their way to Atlanta for the purpose of going before the judge and "acknowledging the corn," and begin serving their sentences.

We have just learned why a certain fellow in this county is opposed to a certain rural route. He is assistant postmaster, which pays him about five dollars a year, and had rather have the honor of attending to this office so he can read other people's newspapers and save a dollar a year, than to have a rural route.

Anderson & Jones have just received the best line of fall and winter clothing ever brought to Dahlonga last Monday. Mr. Jones if you want the best suit you ever bought for the money, call on them. They will be glad to show it at any time and give you their prices. They will have new goods continually coming in until the season is over.

Mr. D. O. Johnson, of New Bridge, Ga., spent a short time in Dahlonga last Monday. Mr. Johnson is a good christian, a fine gentleman and we all like to see him come up this way. He goes to college here, and is following the footsteps of his father, and if all the young men were like him there would be much less trouble in the land.

On last Saturday, while Mr. J. R. Lunsford, a student, was slacking some time in a bottle at the college for the purpose of making an experiment, the bottle exploded and its contents filled his eyes, and caused inflammation to set in so he couldn't see. Mr. Lunsford was carried the next day to Dr. Calhoun, in Atlanta, who thinks he can save one eye and hopes to be able to save both. Mr. Lunsford is a nice young man and was endeavoring to make a good mark in this world by following the ministry and we trust that he will not be prevented from carrying out his desire.

Sheriff Orr, of Dawson county, was in town a short while last week.

Parties who claimed to be too poor to give the white preacher a nickel, freely donated several dimes the other night to see the negro woman appear on the top of a table bare footed and frockless. Oh, how curious we all are.

The other night the electric lights went out while the minister was preaching at the Methodist church. He preached on. But those people who were eating a late supper and were out of oil had to crawl off to bed hungry. Such inconveniences and displeasures as these could be prevented by the company putting an electrician in charge of the plant.

T. S. Littlefield has moved his store and will now be found at the stand on the corner near T. J. Smith & Bro., just vacated by J. E. McGee, with a full line of general merchandise, together with a big lot of coffins, caskets and burial robes. Also ladies' hats. And in connection, runs a livery stable, next lot to W. H. Jones' store. He also keeps wagons and buggies for sale. See his ad elsewhere.

The officers returned from Garland last week, after making a two days search in that section for miles around, hunting the robbers who broke into Mr. Bowen's store on the night of the 26th inst., but found neither men nor stolen goods. It seems that no store is safe from these thieves, as they enter any they desire in the country at pleasure and take what they want. Not long ago Mr. Bowen's store—then Parks & Bowen's—was entered and the lot of things carried off and no clue could ever be found. And again the same way.

A large number of people who used to reside in Lumpkin are now located in Jackson county, and are doing well. They enjoy their rural daily mails delivered by twenty or more carriers throughout the county, each carrier receiving more than seven hundred dollars annually, thus causing thousands of dollars to be distributed in Jackson county every year by the government. The people of Lumpkin county could enjoy some of this government money and live more prosperous, too, if they were not so dull headed, by some of them fighting the rural routes now proposed for this section.

Mr. Edwards, an electrician, is now engaged in overhauling the electric lines of the Consolidated Co., and will adjust things so that all lights will shine alike—bright and nice. Unexperienced hands have been employed until it is in pretty bad shape by some of the transformers being overloaded, thus giving dim lights. Then when this work is completed and the manager would put some one in charge of the plant that thoroughly understands his business there would be much less trouble and more satisfaction. Satisfaction can't be given now when the lights are on and off so frequent that those using them have to keep a supply of oil on hand so as to meet the emergency.

The electric lights have been better this week.

Miss Maud McGuire has returned from her visit to Dawson county.

Bob Davis was fined a dollar and cost last week for shooting at a dog, yet he didn't hit it.

On Tuesday old corn sold at 65 cents per bushel and new corn juice went at $2 per gallon.

Mrs. M. J. Findley bid off the small piece of J. B. Adams property here last Tuesday for $20.

Mr. J. E. Blackburn was awarded the contract of painting the public school building for $49.75.

The treasurer received $224.22 from the convict fund this week to be used on the roads of Lumpkin county.

Capt. Williams, the new commandant here, does not swear himself, nor allow the student officers to do so.

Capt. E. J. Williams went down to Atlanta Monday and brought back his wife. We extend to both a cordial welcome.

Mrs. J. P. Cronan died in Nimbleshill district last week, aged 80. Had been a member of the Methodist church 50 years.

All subscribers to THE NUGGET who have secured boxes and expect to get their mail by Morrayville route No. 2, will please drop us a card at once.

If you need any letterheads, statements, envelopes or any other kind of printing done, send your orders to THE NUGGET office. Work and prices will sure please you.

Some of us will give two dollars a gallon for blockade liquor and never say a word about the price, but when it comes to paying taxes we claim that they are too high.

That married man on Tuesday doubtless thought that it was rainy enough to drown out sensations, but had his wife appeared on the scene of the happy reunion with her broom those pleasant smiles would have changed to frowns and grief.

A few days ago a certain person supposed to be an electrician, sent us an ad from Gainesville to be inserted several times. We printed it once and sent the bill but got no reply. We lifted out his ad and judge that he is too slow for any kind of electrical work.

Rev. J. E. Blackburn was conducting a meeting up at Concord last week but when some of them commenced bringing in liquor and coming drunk he closed his meeting, but after the matter is brought before the next grand jury he may preach there again some time in the future.

Our sister county, Union, would also be greatly benefited if Lumpkin county had a railroad. A surplus of hundreds of bushels of Irish potatoes and apples, and many thousands of whitehead cabbage are produced in Union, which are marketed in Gainesville and Atlanta by wagons, a distance of 40 miles to Gainesville and 100 to Atlanta, requiring a loss of from three to ten days every time each farmer has to make these trips. If we had a railroad to Dahlonga all this produce could be sold here and the farmers of Union could make the trip here and back home in less than two days. The area of Union is 825 square miles.

Our New Commandant.

Col. Sidney Herbert, who writes charming letters from Pine crest Villa, Florida, every week to the Savannah Morning News, has this to say about Capt. Williams, the new military inspector in our college:

"Capt. E. J. Williams of the Fifth United States Infantry, has succeeded Maj. Tillson as military instructor at the Dahlonga, Ga., College. He is a Georgian, a star graduate of Gordon Military Institute at Barnesville, and has been in the army since 1898, winning steady promotion by his fine soldierly qualities. He bears the good old Bible name of Ezekiel, and that will suit my dear old Baptist friend, Col. W. B. Price, the able president of the board of college trustees."

Col. Herbert loves to tell of two battles of the Civil War, in both of which he met his "dear old Baptist friend," in the deadly breach. He still believes that Col. Price, then an orderly sergeant, killed his horse at the first battle of Manassas. When a part of Gen. Keyes's Brigade of New Englanders charged upon Bonham's Brigade of South Carolinians. We have heard Col. Price say that he would gladly be willing to give his friend Herbert a "fresh horse," if he would spend a season with him in Dahlonga. These two old veterans are good friends, and have been ever since the Civil War ended.

Mining Notes.

Arrangements are being made to put in five more stamps at the Barlow mill.

The canal which is to convey water to the Battle Branch mine, is quite likely completed by this time, as it was expected that it would only take a few days this week to finish it.

Col. Jones, president of the Cavender's Creek Gold Mining Co., is expected here at an early day. The Colonel is a wide awake progressive gentleman and we trust that he will be able soon to secure power and start up his mine.

McDonald and Moore have been engaged for several days in cutting a ditch and laying a pipe line from the Hand ditch so as to strengthen their water on the placer diggings of the Colombia mine where they have five years digging a head of rich deposits.

Mr. Arnold's letter under this head about our article concerning the Etowah mine last week explains itself. We thought our correspondent meant the Etowah now owned by the Southern Power and Milling Co. We will have something to say about the lower Etowah or "Josephine", next week. MY DEAR MR. TOWNSEND:

I notice in the current issue of THE NUGGET an article you publish in reply to a communication received from a stockholder of The Etowah Gold Mining and Milling Co. who resides in Iowa, and you convey the impression in your paper that this property has been leased by the Southern Power and Milling Co., and it is my purpose to correct this error that I send this letter, as I know that you do not intend to mislead the readers of your valuable paper.

The Etowah Gold Mining Co. was chartered in October, 1902, by the Superior court of this district, as this company has the exclusive right to the title of Etowah, being the successors of the old Etowah and Battle Branch H. H. & Co.

When the promoters of the old "Josephine mine" applied for a charter from the above Court, asking for the use of the name of Etowah the Court, refused it on the ground that said name was used by the Etowah Gold Mining Co. and was therefore unwise to have two companies with similar names, which would cause conflict. These people then obtained a charter from one of the Western States and from what we can learn have not registered in this State which prevents them from having legal standing in the State of Georgia.

Regarding the personal part of your article the writer has no appointments to make except to say that he does not profess to be a mine in the local acceptance of the term. He claims to be a technical and business man and intends to operate and manage the properties of this company on a strict business basis, something that appears to the visiting investors as having been sadly neglected in this section.

There is one thing that I would like to mention before closing, any man who investigates conditions here soon learns that the gold is not cannot be saved with the machinery in use at present. There must be a logical reason for this and to a technical man the solution is at hand. Practically all the mines operated here started at the surface with decomposed ores that yielded up its gold contents. When depth increased complications set in and the stamp mill was found wanting. This much cannot be denied, as time has proven the correctness of this fact. The Southern gold fields are looking for some system that is going to make the rich, though rebellious and refractory ores give up its gold just as the old stamp mills with "quick" captured the free gold of the surface ores. The writer claims that there is a solution for this condition of affairs and it was only because he left the beaten trails that all miners have followed for years, he evolved a method that for two years has not been found wanting. It now remains to carry this test out on an enlarged scale in order that those who are interested may see for themselves and be the judges as to whether this solution has been found to recover the gold from the rich ores that abound in this country. Such a plant is now being created on the property of the Etowah Mining Co. to be of commercial size and upon it will depend much of the future prosperity of this country.

Please make such extracts as you can use in your paper but do not print it as coming from me. I am anxious for you to set your readers right on the two Etowah companies as having no connection with one another and besides our company has no outside stockholders, all of the stock being held by the board of directors.

Thanking you for the trouble in setting this matter right. I am yours truly, CRAIG R. ARNOLD.

Humor and Philosophy

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

Two heads may be better than one, but not to an army.

In a game that two can play at, one is apt to get beat.

When a man gets beaten in a business deal, he may play the lout, but not to the extent of threatening to tell his mother on the other fellow.

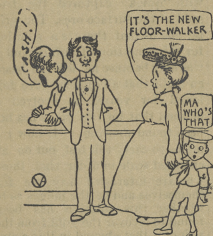

When a man starts out to paint a town, the police should hold him up and ask him if he belongs to the painters' union.

It is only a step from the sublime to the ridiculous—the handmaster when he takes off his hat.

A man may have a shiny bald head and yet be regarded by the neighbors as half-brained.

Some people who would not think of jumping from a ten story ledge into matrimony in the most thoughtless manner.

A man has to be very far gone before he will sit on a barb wire fence to watch a girl go by.

Only occasionally is there a favored individual who can draw a salary for looking wise.

To avoid slips between the cup and the lip a man should take his drinks through a straw.

A woman's will may be stronger than a man's, but a lawyer would just as soon break one as the other.

Keep Cool. When it's hot enough to roast a brass monkey.

Keep cool. No use to get mad or grow spunky.

Keep cool. Just take this advice—It's given without price—And put it on ice: Keep cool.

Keep cool. When it's marked at one hundred and two in the shade.

Keep cool. And the mercury slowly is going up grade.

Keep cool. Let other folks stew And at the rag chew And grumble while you Keep cool.

Keep cool. When sun strokes are stalking abroad through the town.

Keep cool. And playfully cutting the villagers down.

Keep cool. And when the sun's rays Cause side-walks to blaze Or some such prank plays, Keep cool.

Keep cool. Perhaps this may strike you as silly, and yet.

Keep cool. It's just like a lot of advice that you get.

Keep cool. Some day will arise And play he's J. Wise And gravely advise, Keep cool.

Simple Remedy for Typhoid Fever.

We reproduce a very simple remedy for typhoid fever which it is said will in no way conflict with a physician's prescription. The Gastonia (N.C.) tells of its efficacy as follows: "A Newton man discovered that a toad applied to the foot of a fever patient and kept there would certainly cure the patient. A young man in this county has been very low with typhoid for several weeks; so ill in fact, that the physicians gave him up to die. Another young man had typhoid and took the frog treatment and was cured, and so the treatment was applied to the other patient with gratifying results. The young man is reported as convalescing. The toad turns green and dies, having drawn all the fever from the patient."

Spent Thousands to Get Verdict.

At Windfall, Ind., Adam Repp, one of the wealthiest farmers of Tipton county, has just given an elaborate dinner to all his neighbors and friends in celebration of his victory over W. C. Legg, another wealthy farmer.

The men have been in the courts for more than two years over a dead horse, the original price of which was $81. After paying out more than $1,000 each for attorney's fees, Repp, who claimed he had been swindled when he bought the horse, was awarded a verdict of $1.

Of course this carried the costs to his opponent. These amount to $1,482, consequently Legg's court expenses stand him at $2,423, or rather $2,483, for he must pay $1 to Repp.

A spacious farm is owned by David Rankin, of Tarkio, Mo. It comprises 21,000 acres, all under cultivation. In one vast cornfield there are 14,000 acres. He is the largest stock feeder in the world. In 1902 he raised and sold 7539 head of cattle, which brought the sum of $172,520.

Mother's Cradle Song.

It seems to me I hear it yet,
My mother's cradle song,
Although the years since mother sang
Are plentiful and long.
I see her there, in memory;
She rocks the cradle slow,
And now that little lullaby
Comes to me, soft and low.
Go to sleep, my baby,
Go to sleep, my dear,
Mother watches o'er you,
There is naught to fear.
Go to sleep, my baby,
Board the ship of sand,
On the sea of Drowsy,
Sail to Slumberland.
The baby's gone to sleep at last,
The cradle's ceased its sway,
Now mother takes me in her arms,
As 'round the shadows play.
She rocks me close upon her breast,
And then, it seems, ere long
A worn-out youngster falls asleep;
To mother's cradle song.
Tonight I'd give all I possess,
Could I but hear her sing
The little song which, in my ears,
At present seems to ring.
I'd give it all if she'd come back,
E'en though 'twere not for long,
And sing a lullaby to me,
To mother's cradle song.

Profits in Begging.

It is calculated that 4,000 persons are making a living in London by begging, and that their average income amounts to about $1,500,000 a year. Last year 1,935 persons were arrested for begging in the streets, of whom more than 1,500 were sentenced to terms of imprisonment varying from one week to three months. Many of these objects of charity were found in possession of sums of money, and even of bank-books showing very handsome deposits.

The deepest gold mine in the world is said to be at Bendigo, in Australia. It is called the New-Chum Railway mine, and its main shaft is sunk to the depth of 3,900 feet, or only sixty feet short of three-quarters of a mile.

Alum for Snake Bites.

In the snake bite symposium which The Press is printing, mention has been made of the fact that a lady had sent into The Press office over the telephone a remedy, which consisted of drinking a strong solution of alum water.

This opens up a new line of treatment which seems to be simpler than any remedy we have yet heard. A Savannah physician sends us a scrap book in which the alum theory is more thoroughly developed.

The story is told in this article that something over thirty years ago a rattlesnake crawled out from under a Georgia farmhouse and, instead of killing it, one of the party who detected the reptile asked permission to try an experiment. So he stepped out, pulled off his boot and sock and kicked the snake in his mouth with his naked foot. Of course the snake bit him on the foot. The man went behind the house, swallowed something, and, returning, pulled off his other boot and sock and made the snake bite the other foot. Once more the wounded man retired behind the house, took something in his mouth, came back, killed the snake, put on his boots and socks, and resumed his seat among his astonished friends.

The crowd, of course, begged him to tell them what he took when he went around the house. He said that when out in the Rocky mountains, where there are a great many large rattlesnakes, people carry alum in their pockets and as soon as bitten they break off and swallow a piece of alum about the size of a nut. It will act as an antidote for the poison of the most venomous snake. That was what he took when the Georgia snake bit him, and hundreds of people in the south, to whom this remedy has been given, report a successful trial in snake bite.

A man who hunted a great deal in the mountains of North Georgia always carried a pocket full of alum and if one of his dogs was bitten by a rattlesnake he would pour alum down the dog's throat and the animal would go on in the hunt. The theory of the action of the drug is that as soon as the alum reaches the stomach the bile gushes out of the bile tubes into the intestines and no doubt regurgitates into the stomach, which is irritated by the presence of the alum.

This leads an Atlanta physician to say that a piece of alum the size of the end of the finger chewed and swallowed, seems to be a perfect cure for the most poisonous snake bite.—Savannah Press.

Southern Advancement.

Northern methods are gradually invading the South, and to its commercial advantage. Mr. M. V. Richards, head of the Industrial Department of the Southern Railway, who has carefully gone over conditions in the Southern field, says that when the farmers down there become inculcated with Northern system and economy, the South will take its right position in the country as a highly developed agricultural region, where every man on a piece of land, intelligently cultivated, can be his own master in a sense that no other man be. A farm anywhere is nearer nature's heart than the sidewalks of the city. Besides the air is purer, and so is the water, and food right out of the ground is not adulterated.—Ex.

Mothers need have no hesitancy in continuing to give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to their little ones, as it contains absolutely nothing injurious. This remedy is not only perfectly safe to give small children, but is a medicine of great worth and merit. It has a world wide reputation for its cures of coughs, colds and croup and can always be relied upon. For sale by Dr. C. H. Jones, Druggist, Dahlonega, Ga.

Sea Gypsies.

In the archipelago of Mergui, off the coast of lower Burma, live the "sea" Gypsies. Instead of carts they own covered boats, in which, with their families, dogs, cats, chickens and pets, they float about on the sea and wander from island to island. By day they fish or harpoon turtle or drive for oysters, but every night they put back to the shore. In the case of bad weather at sea, they land with their dogs and then punch, catching porcupines, squirrels and the like, of which they make savory dishes.

Whitfield county went "dry" last week and Dalton will have no barrooms.

President Roosevelt is going to see the yellow fever patients in New Orleans.

Harvie Jordan is advising the farmers not to sell their cotton for less than 11 cents per pound.

Total number of yellow fever cases in New Orleans up to last Wednesday 8,380. Deaths 415.

Mr. Henry B. Gurley, one of the oldest settlers of Gaddistown, died on Thursday of last week, aged 90.

We have always been under the impression that legislators made laws and not the governor. But it seems from what some of the candidates say that we are mistaken.

Jim McHugh, a Pennsylvanian, killed a negro down in Cobb county, Ga., the other day, because he says that the negro attacked him. So it seems that there are other persons besides southerners who kill negroes.

A young girl who recently sent 50 cents to a Chicago advertiser for a receipt to whiten and keep the hands soft, received the following reply: "Soak them three times a day in dish water while your mother rests."

We learn from parties who attended meeting at Concord, in Hall county, last Sunday, that Rev. Mr. Loyd, of Hiwassee, had a narrow escape from being killed by his male running away with him, however, Mr. Loyd was able to preach a portion of the 11 o'clock sermon.

In Union county a poor old man receives a plug of tobacco through the mail every week but does not know where it comes from or who sends it. We are told that it comes many miles from a friend of his who has not forgotten the old man for the favors he did him years ago when he (the old gentleman) had everything he wanted at home. Later.—Since penning the above the old gentleman has died.

The following comes from Union county: If you have a surplus missionary preacher don't let him go off to any foreign country before he visits this section. The other day when people went to a certain man's house, who was paralyzed to wash and dress him, his father-in-law went off to market. And before this, the man's grand child was buried, and he went off without attending the funeral and his wife didn't attend either but sheared sheep.

The Mt. Lebanon church trouble over in Union county, is settled as far as the court is concerned. Bartow Abercrombie, and his parents were charged with disturbing divine worship, caused by a split in the church, which is familiar to most of our readers. Last week in Union Superior court Bartow Abercrombie was found guilty and fined three dollars and cost. Solicitor General Charters agreed for Mr. and Mrs. Abercrombie to enter a plea of guilty and be fined the same. They did this and no doubt the officials were glad to get rid of the case. Much of the money, if not all, was made up and paid by the friends of the defendants. The Rev. Jonathan Gilreath, who was on the opposite side, paid Bartow's fine. This split in the church has caused the best of friends to fall out and we have no idea that the divided factions will ever come together and brother and sister each other like they once did.

For Mayor.

Having been solicited by a number of our best citizens to make the next race for mayor of Dahlonega, I have decided to do so and ask the support of all. It's true that it is not a salary office and there is no money in it, yet when a man is called upon by all classes of people to serve them, I believe it is his duty to consent, money or no money, and this is why I am before you today. If elected I mean to handle the scales of justice properly by treating all persons, either high or low, rich or poor, white or black, alike, let it be friend or foe. Should any of the citizens prefer some one else, let their man come forward so we can trot along the track together, and if he wins the race I will not commit suicide, but continue to do all I can for the upbuilding of Dahlonega, regardless of whether I wear an official robe or not.

Respectfully,
W. B. TOWNSEND.

"Cursing" Bill Cain put on his derby and went over into Canada the other day to tack up hand bills for C. T. McDonald and by Saturday night he had more than twenty-five bushels of chestnuts landed on this side of the mountain, and the last heard of Bill he was going through Frogtown. Some folks were fools enough to believe that he was advertising for some sort of a show. This proves that advertising pays.

Well, that clever mail carrier was over at the last night of Miss Mary Jarrard's school, not carrying the mail but carrying females. He had two girls in the buggy and walked and led the horse.

The last night of our school was very interesting. The fiddlers were Dave and Will Jarrard and Bob Patton. Will opened the entertainment by playing Black Eyed Susie, and everybody behaved nicely and the children had a good time. Don't say now that they will close Miss Jarrard's school next year, for she is a good teacher and they can't get a better one in the county.

Tom Seabright, a negro, convict, who on Sunday raped two girls near Bainbridge, Ga., committed the second assault while he was being pursued by the officers for the first offense. He was taken from the officers afterwards and lynched that night by a mob composed of his race.

Lots of young girls who are devoting lots of time to music lessons will learn after marriage that cooking is a more valuable accomplishment than thumping a piano, safely remarks the Quittman Advertiser.

Meaders & Sons Interesting Talk.

In the fall of the year, when you are changing the stock from green to dry food, the stomach needs a stimulant to keep it to overcome the loss of the great amount of soft, sappy, food sold dully cut off.

The above change of food often causes cows to almost dry up their milk.

Hogs, when they are taken off the pasture and penned up, often will not eat enough to get fat, or the food does not do them much good, with the exercise they get.

Under all of the above conditions of stock, International Stock Food remedies are the best that can be used, we firmly believe. It will prevent hog and chicken cholera. It will help materially to save the cow from going dry. It will cause the horse and colt to eat heartily and assist them to get more benefit from the food eaten. It will kill the worms that cause them to droop and their hair to look rough and dead. The packages are sold at 25c, 50c, $1.00 and $3.50. Kept by B. R. Meaders & Sons.

We can mention several people in and near Dahlonega—not of some 1,000 miles—who will tell you that these remedies are all we claim for them.

GOING OUT OF BUSINESS.

NOTICE TO EVERYBODY

I have fully made up my mind to go out of the mercantile business at Auraria, and want to close out the entire stock by January 1st, 1906.

My entire line of dry goods, notions, hats and groceries, will be sold cheap for cash, and a great many things below cost.

I have been in business here for over 28 years and am tired of the business, and want to devote my time more to gold mining. I mean to sell, and those who are looking for bargains can get them here.

To those who owe me, either by note or account, will please come at once and settle up, or after 30 days from date, same will be put in the hands of a collecting officer for collection.

This store building and fixtures will be for rent after January 1st, 1906, and the right man can do a nice business here, and I shall be pleased to let the same to any good upright person.

Very respectfully,
JOEL T. MILLER.

Wounds, Bruises and Burns.

By applying an antiseptic dressing to wounds, bruises, burns and like injuries before inflammation sets in, they may be healed without maturation and in about one third the time required by the old treatment. This is the greatest discovery and triumph of modern surgery. Chamberlain's Pain Balm acts on this same principle. It is an antiseptic and when applied to such injuries, causes them to heal very quickly. It also allays the pain and soreness and prevents any danger of blood poisoning. Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your home, and it will save you time and money, not to mention the inconvenience and suffering such injuries entail. For sale by Dr. C. H. Jones, Druggist, Dahlonega, Ga.

One of our patrons in Greenville, Pa., says, "Send along The Nugget. We don't want it to stop," showing that it is read with interest abroad as well as at home.

There were several f. as. issued against parties last week who failed to pay their city taxes in time. Had they taken warning by The Nugget they could have saved a dollar cost.

In publishing the suits filed in the Justice court here last week, one was mentioned as W. A. Charters vs. The Dahlonega Consolidated Co. M. Co. It should have been The Dahlonega Gold Mining and Milling Co.

Your attention is called to the ad of H. D. Gerley in this issue. He has reduced the price of his goods so as to make it to your interest to trade here at home without having to visit any other market in search of bargains.

Last year there was a total of 23,800 bales of cotton ginned in Milton, Forsyth, Dawson, Lumpkin and White, the five counties having no railroad so far, but we trust that the day is not far distant when we will see one built from Roswell, Ga., through these counties by the way of Dahlonega.

A citizen of Dahlonega says that he is not only opposed to one rural route in this county, but all of them. So if his wishes are carried out on the five proposed routes Lumpkin county will lose 83,000 annually, and many of her citizens will have to continue to go as far as six and seven miles after their mail.

We are going to revise our subscription list again and if you want The Nugget it will be well enough to see whether your subscription is out or about so. Non-resident citizens will find when their subscriptions expire by the date before their names. Don't forget to look. If you do, you will likely miss your paper.

We are indebted to Mr. D. H. B. Hooper for a copy of the Mayor's report of the city of Biddeford, Maine. Mr. Hooper is the clerk. It is right interesting reading. It seems that Biddeford is not a temperance place, as the report shows that 418 arrests have been made by the police of that city during the past twelve months for drunkenness.

Here is something that should encourage the farmers of Lumpkin and cause those who are not already raising cotton to begin next year. Time and experience has proved that it will mature here before frost. The Georgia department of agriculture shows that in 1902 only 77 bales of cotton were raised in this county. In 1903, 81 bales, and in 1904, 281 bales. Increasing every year. One hundred pounds of green ginned seed yield as follows: Kernals 84 pounds. Hulls 47, and the 54 pounds of kernals yield 84 pounds of meal. This shows how profitable cotton raising is, especially when you get 10 cents for it.

Most of the roads of this county are reported in good condition, and not all the road money, collected from the hands, spent yet. This shows that the present system of working roads is much better than the old one.

Three citizens of Hall county passed through Dahlonega last Monday on their way back home from the mountains, having their wagons loaded with nice apples. Apples are in demand now and are bringing a good price.

The colored Methodist preacher here and "Sister" Flossie Harris went over to Hickory Grove last Saturday night and had what they called a barbecue, but it was different to any barbecues that we ever heard of before, because each one paid for what he or she devoured. The crowd was too slim for Flossie to dance on glass and but little change was taken in. All the negroes over that way work for their living and have plenty to eat at home.

Mr. J. H. Worley, of Dahlonega, who was too young to be in the civil war, has received a blank from the state department for several years, asking him to make his claim out a little stronger. Not knowing anything about the claim he returned the papers a time or two, stating that he was not in the war and was not entitled to any pension, yet another blank and letter was received by him not long ago, and not caring to write any more, put it away. There is a mystery about it. It may be that some one put this claim in, hoping to defraud the state by getting the money himself.

Mr. Howard Stanton was up from Gainesville awhile this week.

When you come to court next week and not already a subscriber to The Nugget, call around and drop a dollar in the slot.

An ad in The Nugget brings results. Those who have tried this know it to be a fact. The way to sell goods is to ask people to buy them.

The party in Dahlonega who never buys any wood, yet chops some between 11 and 13 o'clock at night, will remain a mystery until one of his neighbors unravels it with a shotgun.

Boyd Anderson, of White county, charged with misdemeanor in Lumpkin county, made another bond last Sunday, having been given up by his former bondsman, Mr. Maghes Anderson.

If you want a good night's rest and plenty to eat next week, call at Bruce Place, where he has recently fitted up a lot of comfortable rooms with nice furniture and runs a first-class restaurant.

Mrs. J. B. Graham of this county, is now very sick down in Dawson and the Advertiser says that there is but little hopes of her recovery. Later, -As we go to press news has been received by phone that Mrs. Graham is dead.

Last Friday John Worley and Gris McGuire went out squirrel hunting. They saw no squirrels, but killed three pilots, two of which were up in a sapling. The other was coiled, just ready to strike Worley when he saw it and jumped back.

Our old friend, Mr. W. H. Courtney, of Pleasant Retreat, Ga., dropped in to see us last Saturday. Mr. Courtney is one of White county's most wide awake and energetic citizens and is always a pleasure to us for such men to visit our city.

The attention of the ladies is called to the large stock of new dress goods at J. F. Moore & Co. The prettiest in town. Also a lot of cooking, heating stoves and "hot stuff" stoves. A nice assortment of mattresses, bed springs and furniture.

An effort is being made now to have a rural route established from Dahlonega by way of or near Hadwig, in Lumpkin county, New Bridge, in Hall, and back by the Rediff Palmour place in Dawson county, making a distance of 24 miles. More than fifty persons signed the petition the first day and the required number was secured without any trouble.

The game of football between the Dahlonega and Tech team in Atlanta last Saturday resulted in the success of the latter by 54 to 0. Our boys played well considering the short time they have been practicing, but stood no showing with such a team as the Techs. It is claimed by the Dahlonega boys that a former N. G. A. C. boy gave the Tech their signal. It is said by all seeing the game that the Dahlonega boys played well and were very brave to tackle a body of giants like the Techs.

We will not get a rural route established by London until the bridge across the Yahoola creek is raised and the department notified that it is done. This bridge is useless during high water unless a man risks his life and undertakes to cross it when the water covers it. One man who did this missed the bridge and came near losing his life some time ago. It ought to be attended to at once. The grand jury has recommended this several times and if not attended to it may cause a big damage suit some time.

A light frost here yesterday.

Bring your jewelry work next week to G. H. McGuire.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Chester have been up this week on a visit from Pickens county.

Col. J. H. Moore has gone to Nashville, Tenn., for a few days, accompanied by his wife.

We have a peach tree that has its second blooms on it for this year. Can any one beat this?

Mr. Joe Ricketts and Mr. John Anderson went down to Atlanta this week to beat at the big old time singing at the fair.

Mr. G. W. Gray, of Chicago, was wedded to Mrs. F. W. Hall, formerly of Dahlonega, but now of Atlanta, on Tuesday last.

Mr. Ed McDonald brought in a year-old porker last Wednesday that tipped the beam at 324, and yet he is going to move to South Georgia.

Mr. John Ravan died at his home in Chestate district last Monday, aged about 93, and thus another one of Lumpkin county's old land marks has passed on to his reward.

When men yell and disturb people over during the day they are brought to a halt. But tied dogs that bark and howl and keep the neighbors from resting any other day or night, are not molested. How is this?

Mr. W. W. Crisson will leave in a few days to begin the work of transmitting the power from Dunlap Shoals in Hall county, to Atlanta. The surplus power of the Chestate plant, in Lumpkin county, will go in the same direction, so Mr. Crisson informs us.

The last fire in Dahlonega was caused from a stove fire burning out and catching the roof. Now like occurrences could be prevented in Dahlonega by each citizen taking a newspaper and burning out their chimneys the next time it rains. Don't delay this matter for the burning of a single paper may be the means of saving your house or the entire town.

Miss Carrie Brooksher, a daughter of Mr. J. M. Brooksher, is sick with typhoid fever. This makes the twelfth or fourteenth case they have had at this house, now owned and occupied by Mr. Brooksher, in the last twelve or fifteen years. The physicians are at a loss to know the cause. Some years ago the well at this place had a wooden tub put in it to keep it from caving. Afterwards it was taken out in a decayed condition, but still they have had a case or two of fever at that place nearly every year since. A few weeks ago Mr. Brooksher dug a new well, but it was too late to prevent the illness of Miss Carrie.

Mining Notes.

The McAfee-Lind mill commenced running first of the month and the plates look well.

The chlorination plant of the Consolidated Co. was started up this week and things are hot down that way. It is in charge of Mr. Tompkins, of North Carolina.

All who have seen Mr. Coopers gold saving machine tested at the McAfee-Lind Mine in this county, believe that it will be a success, as it saves the gold without flouring the quick.

Mr. Breynan turned the water on his new wheel at the Singleton last Saturday and will be able to run 20 stamps hereafter day and night. The mine is improving and the results are very satisfactory.

Either rain or shine, hot or cold, the steam shovel of the Banker Hill Mining and Dradging Co.'s boat continues scooping up the yellow metal from the bed of the Chestate river, clearing from forty to fifty dollars per day, unless it rains enough to raise the river like it did on Tuesday.

On Friday morning the hands, who have been at work at the Crown Mountain returned home instead of going down into the shaft. Failing to get any money for their labor was the cause. The shaft is about 100 feet deep and according to Prof. Boyd's survey, lies nineteen or twenty feet below low enough to strike the vein.

The Barlow is showing up well and the clean ups are unusually good. The cost of running by steam is very expensive on account of the quantity of wood necessary to operate the machinery which is getting more unhandy each day to haul, and should there come a long wet spell they would run out of wood and have to suspend, but we understand that this trouble is expected soon to be overcome by a wire being run from the Hand plant so as to operate the mine by electricity. The shaft is now about one hundred feet deep and the vein grows larger and richer as it is followed.

In reply to the numerous inquiries about the lower Etowah or Josephine mine, we will say that nothing is doing at it nor has been before some time. There are several good veins opened up on the property but cannot be worked profitably without water is pumped up on the mountain in large quantities as much brickbat slate is in the way and it cannot be gotten rid of without ample water. There was a company formed in New York to do this but after selling all the stock possible it disbanded without doing so and is marked by the postoffice department as a fraud. Yes, ex-Governor Candler was the first and only president, who had such confidence in these men that he never visited the mine but once, that we have heard of, and he too was deceived, but not hurt like the stockholders who were defrauded. Afterwards it was leased to another northern man by the name of Vanayekle, who came down and had seven hundred dollars worth of fluming done on a credit preparatory to putting water at the proper place, and he has also failed to either return or settle off the debt, but tries to console the contractor by writing him an occasional letter telling him that he intends to. A Mr. Kiser was in charge of the mine all along under its different management, looking after the property, waiting for work to be gin, but becoming discouraged he returned the Josephine mine for state and county taxes at only fourteen hundred dollars and left for other parts, after selling the mill plates and other things about the mine, to pay him for some of his trouble, so we are informed.

News has been very scarce this week. If any one had any they would not give it out. Maybe they will give it to us next week. Like Taylor Wallace used to be going to a corn shucking. When he was invited to attend one he would not eat anything scarcely for a day or two before and when the shucking took place he would go and fill up with everything that was good to eat.

Mr. John Marlow, of this county, has moved to Logansville, Ga.

Merchant Ben Andersen went to Gainesville yesterday to see the people.

Mr. E. F. Jackson left yesterday to visit his daughter at Chattahoochee, Ga.

Merchant Will Price went to Atlanta to take in the ball game and brought back a bad cold.

Quite likely we will have some gubernatorial candidate here next week who will tell the "dear people" all about it.

On Thursday of last week Mr. Marion Conner, of New Bridge, was married to Mrs. Mattie Head, Judge G. G. Evans officiated.

Sulphur-Smoked Apples.

Of all the labor-saving processes that have been brought to the front within the last few years this seems to be the most successful inexpensive. You take the apples when they are ready for canning, peel them and slice them as if for drying. Put a pan of coals in the bottom of a clean, close barrel, put three tablespoons of the flour sulphur on the coals. Fill a basket of apples and hang them in the barrel, cover with a heavy carpet and let them hang there for three hours, stirring them up three times. Now pack the apples, just as they are, in wooden buckets or earthen jars, tie them up and put them where there is no danger of freezing and they keep perfectly until apples are on the trees again. When you cook them soak in cold water for an hour and stew, fry or make apple dumplings. Do anything else you want with them and they are as good as if just gathered. You can treat peaches or quinces just the same way and with the same success.

Pay Days in Norway.

In Norway on pay days saloons are closed and savings banks open until midnight. Servant girls hire for half a year at a time by contract at public registry offices. There is a telegraph box on every street car. One writes the message, puts on the right number of stamps, and drops it in the box. Farmers can borrow money from the government at three per cent. There are practically no illiterates. The average wage earnings are $88 a year. There are more reindeer than horses, more sheep than cows.

It is the usual custom in most cities to at once summon the coroner to view the remains of a person who has died without medical assistance, and he then in panels a jury to inquire the cause of death. A wise ruralist explained, however, that there is no reason for calling in a coroner to see the body of a man who has had a physician's aid, because every body knows who killed him.

We notice one concern in this country run by a party too stingy to pay the printer for getting him up some decent letterheads and envelopes—botching them up himself with a dollar so-called press, is fixing to close out his business. A man who wants the money to all come his way will never prosper.

Of sixty-eight samples of sausage examined by the government analyst at Melbourne, Australia, not one was found unadulterated. In the so-called pork sausage put up by the packing houses not a particle of pork could be discovered.

He Wanted Music Anyway.

Thomas Sellers, a noted double bass player of Boston, was engaged to play for a Hibernian picnic at one of the harbor resorts, and was ordered to be at a certain wharf to take the boat. The morning of the picnic was cold and rainy and Mr. Sellers at first hesitated about going, but later put the rubber cover over his bass and started.

Arriving at the wharf, he found that he was the only member of the orchestra foolish enough to start, and had about made up his mind to return when he noticed a small Irishman with a long Prince Albert coat, big badge and tall hat coming toward him in the rain.

Swelling with pride, and disappointed at not finding a crowd to show his authority, he accosted Sellers in the following manner: "Are you one of the musicians?"

"I am," was the response.

"Well, I'm one of the com-mit-tee, and I want you to take the skin off that thing and give us a tune."

Sympathy and encouragement are the spurs to greater deeds. One grain of sympathy can be compared to a grain of mustard seed—but one grain planted and replanted will be enough to finally spread over the largest field. A living seed once fell from a flying bird's beak into the crevice of a rock. It grew and multiplied until finally it burst the rock in twain. This is a scientific fact, a real happening. Be not selfish with your words of encouragement and sympathy. There is nothing so cheap and yet nothing can be more valuable. — Ex.

Why not move here to give your children a nine months school term instead of having a short term of two or three months as you now have? The children who complete the course in the graded school enter college here without additional examination.
If cheap living, low rates and a nine months school absolutely free for your children is not an attractive proposition, where will you find one?

Tired Nervous

When you feel languid, tired, nervous and irritable, your vitality is low—your supply of nerve energy exhausted, and your system running down for lack of power.

The organs of the body are working poorly, or not at all, and you are not getting the nourishment needed. This soon impoverishes the blood and instead of throwing off the impurities, distributes it all through the body. This brings disease and misery.

Feed the nerves with Dr. Miles' Nerve, a nerve food, a nerve medicine, that nourishes and strengthens the nerves, and see how quickly you will get strong and vigorous.

"My wife suffered with nervousness previous to a recent attack of typhoid fever, but after her recovery from the fever, she was much worse, and could hardly control herself being exceedingly nervous when excited. She was very restless at night and never had a good night's rest. She also suffered much from nervous headache. Dr. Miles' Nerve was recommended by a friend. After the first three doses she had a good night's rest, and at the end of the first week's treatment she was wonderfully improved. Continued use of Nerve has completely her entire cure."

Give Praise to the Wife.

It is often noticed that some men are scrupulously polite and courteous to every other woman but are rude, insolent and overbearing to their own wives. This is a great mystery to the spectator. Then another class of men, often good men, too, think it a sign of weakness—or at least a waste of time, to speak words of kindly appreciation to the often overworked wife. The man of this description is usually a self-sufficient person, but there are many who without meaning any unkindness take all things for granted.

The wife of an unappreciative man is a woman who no old maid should envy, for her loving toil seems all in vain. A wife's one redress is to master her husband, and it is never pleasant to any true-hearted woman to feel that she has to master her husband in order to live comfortably with him. The man who never praises his wife will find fault with everything on every possible occasion. It is the easiest thing in the world to find fault—easier than the proverbial sliding down hill. It gets to be a habit with some men, and they are hardly conscious when they are exercising it.

Why cannot a man show his wife that he appreciates her efforts to please him? Why cannot he praise the pudding of his wife as well as the cooking of his neighbor, Mrs. Jones? Why cannot he speak kindly of her mince pie, and charitably of her sponge cake? Why cannot he say that the new hat is becoming to the face of the woman who loves him? Kind words make his wife happy, and no decent man ought to withhold them, and he will find that the general run of affairs will be smoother all round.

Diagnosed Her Case.

A famous American physician was summoned to the bedside of an elderly grande dame of distinguished name and many millions and who is one of the leaders of American society. The physician examined her carefully. Then he said:

"You must get up every morning at 6 o'clock. Take for breakfast a cup of weak tea and two pieces of dry toast. From 9 to 11 exercise, either walking or sweeping or dusting. At noon lunch on a slice of cold meat, filtered, uniced water and stale bread. Don't sleep in the afternoon; exercise again. For dinner take nothing but a little meat, a vegetable and toast; no sweets, no wines, no social dissipation of any kind."

The eyes of the grande dame flashed with fire as she said:

"But, doctor, do you comprehend my position? Do you know who I am?"

"Perfectly, madam," answered the physician. "You are an old woman with a sour stomach."

New York Press.

To Drive Away Sparrows.

A novel "scare-sparrow" which is claimed to be a success in keeping these birds from eating flower seeds might seemingly be extended to drive from other places which they infest.

Into a round potato stick twenty or thirty tall feathers of a chicken or turkey so that they will stand out from the potato on all sides. Hang it on a pole in the garden suspended by a string. As the wind sways it the sparrows evidently take it for a hawk and retreat.

Pieces of cloth tied to the branches of trees near which young chicks run will have a tendency to keep away hawks and crows.

Free Training of Nurses.

By the terms of a fund to be administered in connection with the Philadelphia School for Nurses, Witherspoon building, Philadelphia, a number of young women from every county will receive free training in nursing. It is planned to ultimately reach and help in this way every village and township.

The young women will be provided with room, board, nurse uniforms and all the refinements of a well-appointed christian home. At graduation the diploma of the school and the Order of the Red Cross will be conferred, qualifying for practice in any state or country; the railroad fare will then be paid back home.

Those applying and chosen to receive the benefits of this fund will be given two years' training, with a rich experience in nursing the sick poor of the city under skilled leaders. The term may be shortened to eighteen months by taking a preliminary course of six months' reading and study at home. A special short course enables young women to quickly qualify themselves for self support and a substantial income.

In addition to regular nursing, the young women are taught how to preserve their own health; how to recognize, avoid and destroy contagion; how to establish and maintain perfect sanitary conditions about the home; they are prepared for positions as office nurse and physician's assistant; they get a practical knowledge of city mission movement, deaconess training, college settlement work, and are trained for special positions of trust in institutions.

The school is ten years old and is endorsed by physicians, leading educators and prominent men throughout the country.

Pay Your Debts.

The man who is endeavoring to pay his bills and cannot is to be pitied and should be extended every help and courtesy possible. It isn't every man who can meet his obligations promptly and due allowance should be made for this. Very few men really desire to unduly push the payments of debts and it is not good business to do it. But the man who contracts debts without the intention of paying them, or who gets behind and then makes no effort to settle up the old scores, should be treated with contempt by all honest people and made to feel that he is about as low down as men grow. Debt is not disgraceful in itself, but to persistently fail and to refuse to pay a debt is a disgrace. The sooner the people come to regard it in this light the better it will be for them. A man is of very small caliber who will allow some other man to feed and clothe and otherwise care for his wife and children without making an effort to pay for it, yet all of us know many men who habitually do this. The man who will do it would steal but for the fear of the law's punishment.—Exchange.

Some persons will do nothing unless they have Bible authority for it. Men will not wipe dishes, because they claim it is woman's work. Let them turn to their Bible, to II Kings, xxi, 13. "I will wipe Jerusalem as a man wipeth a dish, wiping it and turning it upside down." Women, cut this out and show it to the men when they refuse to wipe the dishes.

Nothing to Fear.

Mothers need have no hesitancy in continuing to give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to their little ones, as it contains absolutely nothing injurious. This remedy is not only perfectly safe to give small children, but is a medicine of great worth and merit. It has a world wide reputation for its cures of coughs, colds and croup and can always be relied upon. For sale by Dr. C. H. Jones, Druggist, Dahlonega, Ga.

A minister once had a bad son. His son had a chum equally as bad as himself. These two bad boys passed two leaves of the minister's Bible together. On the next Sunday the minister went to church as usual to preach his sermon, which happened to be on Noah and the Ark. The minister, who was a little near sighted, did not notice the trouble at first, but read: "When Noah was one hundred and forty years old he took unto himself a wife, who was (turning the leaves that been stuck together) one hundred and fifty cubits long, forty cubits wide, half of gopher wood, and covered with pitch inside and out." And when he looked closer, he saw why they all laughed.

Chicago had a $150,000 fire last Sunday.

Atlanta is soon to have another daily paper.

The yellow fever in New Orleans is about over.

Georgia has quarantined six Alabama counties on account of yellow fever.

A Mississippi white woman was recently given 10 years for marrying a negro.

Thousands of people are flocking to Atlanta to see the state fair and the hotel and barkeepers all wear a smile.

It looks like Judge Kimsey is not going to have any opposition for Judgeship. Well, that suits us all right.—Blairsville Banner. Same way over here, brother.

The police of Augusta, Ga., made a successful raid among the gamblers at various places the other night and found good game at each place, and seized about $7,000 worth of property.

Amos Rucker, an old time darkey, who fought many battles in the confederacy, by the side of his master, Capt. J. W. Rucker, died in Atlanta last week and was buried with military honors.

It is said that fifteen thousand people attended the all-day singing at the fair in Atlanta last Friday. The singers were given a barbecue at noon and they all had a pleasant time generally.

A blind tiger was recently found in Cartersville, Ga., in the basement of the house in which the Methabists were holding temporary services, or as Sam Jones calls it, "a blind tiger under a hymn book."

The other day B. D. Watkins, of Atlanta, went to Cordelle and had a fight. On Friday after Mr. Watkins had returned to Atlanta the Mayor of Cordelle tried him over the 'phone and fined him $90 and cost.

The officials are getting after the blind tigers down at Marietta with a sharp stick. Last week two negroes were each fined one hundred dollars and cost by the mayor, besides being bound over to the Superior court. If this is kept up tigers will have to move out from Marietta.

A move is on foot now by the Georgia authorities to have the U. S. court enjoin the Ducktown copper mine smelters for working any mine on account of the smoke killing and destroying the timber of several counties in the former state, which if done will throw many hands out of employment.

On Friday last an infant was found on a drift near the ford of the creek in Mrs. Dock Gooches farm in Dawson county, by Jim Gooch, a son of Mrs. Gooch, some eighteen years of age, while watering a horse or mule. He soon reported the matter. An inquest was held but the jury did not cause the arrest of any one then. But as suspicion rested on Ethel Mincy, a daughter of Mr. Brownlow Mincy, [a well to do farmer living a short distance on the creek above, this girl was arrested by the sheriff on Monday night. Afterwards she made a confession, saying that the child was hers, was born on the bank of the creek with no one present except Jim Gooch, who reported the discovery of the child on the drift, and that he threw the babe into the stream as she started back to the house. Gooch had gone to Atlanta but quite likely has been arrested by this time. The girl is about 15.

Mining Notes.

Down at the Barlow last week while they were beating a small run of ore for Mr. Bev, Brookshire a nugget was found weighing three pennyweights and one grain. The vein he works is on the Barlow property and is a good one.

We were shown some fine pieces of gold ore last week by Mr. Wash Jenkins, a practical native miner of this section. The ore was speckled with gold. It came from a new vein on the Findley property, on top of the mountain. Mr. Jenkins says that it is four feet thick but he does not know its width.

We understand that the manager, or the directors of the Consolidated Co., have decided to clean out the Hand canal and run the water to the Barlow mine again instead of connecting the electric plant of the Consolidated Co. with the Barlow. This will enable them to use a dynamo down there and have a surplus of water for other purposes. Some fine specimens were taken from the Ogle shaft last week—rock as big as a man's hand were speckled with gold.

Moose and McDonald, after a good deal of delay and much work have gotten enough water on their placer diggings on the Columbia property to work it successfully. It is believed to be one of the richest mines of the kind in the county. The last clean up with but little water, convinced these miners of this fact. Mr. Moose says by hand panning a man can make three dollars a day. With their life he thinks that they can make at least one hundred pennyweights of gold a week.

In last weeks NUGGET we stated that all who had seen Maj. J. M. Couper's gold saving machine tested at the McAfee-Lind mine believed that it would be a success. The mill at this mine is as good one to save gold as has ever been built in this county, and those in charge of it know how to keep the plates in the proper shape for it to accomplish its purpose, and yet it was proven by Maj. Couper's machine only a few days ago that quite a lot of gold is lost from its plates. From a few tons of ore the manager after scraping the plates and getting all that could possibly be had by this method, he got ninety pennyweights of gold. Mr. Couper, below the plates with his machine from the sand running from them, cleaned up over three pennyweights, and a pound of quicksilver. The inventor returned to Atlanta to report the result of the machine to Messrs. E. G. Black and M. L. Throver, two other gentlemen of that city who proposed to form a copartnership and have the machines manufactured by this one proved a success. On Friday these gentlemen, accompanied Maj. Couper to Dahlonega, and the following day they, together with Mr. J. F. Moore, of Dahlonega, and Gen. Hardin, who is here on a visit from Kentucky, went down to see a more thorough test of this process made by disinterested parties. Mr. Wharton Anderson, of the Calhoun mine, took three pennyweights of dust gold, some of it being so fine that it would float on water, and put it in three hundred pounds of sand

Why Refer to Doctors

Because we make medicines for them. We give them the formula for Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and they prescribe it for coughs, colds, bronchitis, consumption. They trust it. Then you can afford to trust it. Sold for over 60 years.

"Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is a remedy that should be in every home. I have used a great deal of it for hard coughs and colds, and I know what a splendid medicine it is. I can not recommend it too highly."—MARK E. CHAMBERLAIN, Doyle's Mass.

that didn't contain a speck of gold. This was put into the machine, together with a certain amount of weighed quick and twenty-five shot. The power was turned on and the sand and water in the machine commenced going round and round like a whirl pool in a creek or river. Then a clean up was made and all the shot, 98 per cent of the quick and 97 per cent of the gold were taken from it. This satisfied all present that Maj. Couper's method is a success, and the Atlanta gentlemen returned home who have doubtless made a contract by this time to have a lot of these machines manufactured, and we feel confident that by the use of them gold mining in this county will soon begin a revolution. They will be cheap and one machine can accommodate ten stamps with no extra expense. They can also be used in placer mining.

Randa Dots.

The farmers of this section are gathering corn and the crops are very short. Corn shuckings will soon be the go. Nevertheless, we all expect to get fat.

T. W. Waters is visiting relatives in Atlanta with an eye of moving to that city.

The Hutcheson Bros. will move to Atlanta in the near future. We deeply regret to give up such men in our community.

Bro. John Cochran's philosophy is good. He says that it is not the man that gets up the soonest that does the most. It's the man that stays awake when he gets up.

Jesse Chester is 80 years old. He tills the soil and made 18 loads of corn this year.

Arthur Cochran, who recently married, has moved to Gordon county.

"Long" John Anderson visited us last Sunday and gave us some fine music. Come again, John.

Miss Fannie Pitts was unable to attend the singing last Sunday, owing to previous engagement.

Rev. John A. Berry preached one of the most able and interesting sermons at Nimblesh Baptist church ever delivered at that place, and some of the boys put in a little too much dynamite. It exploded and blew off two horses' tails and made some of the boys in the yard unconscious. Col. Charters may bring them to their recollection about court, as he does not want preachers to ride bob tail horses.

I am informed that the newly established school in the lower part of Nimblesh district is one of the most flourishing schools ever taught in the county, under the able management of Carl Shultz, who always make things lively. Where he taught the children in the upper end of this district—where he taught for four years, has never failed to win the middle. He is a hustler, and we hope he will go to the senate next time. GUESS WHO.

Rev. M. G. Taylor, clerk of the Superior court of Dawson county, died of typhoid fever last Tuesday. Mr. Taylor was also pastor of the Dawsonville Baptist church.

William Crain, a son of James Crain, who has a number of relatives in Lumpkin, died in Dawson county last week.

None of the gubernatorial candidates greeted us with their presence this week. They are doubtless aware that it is useless to speak here now, as the people of Lumpkin county always wait till the proper time before they become interested in a campaign, and then they move out themselves without having to be driven along like a lot of terrapins.

This week Mr. Jackson Foster, of this county, said—although he was a republican and we were a democrat—he was a life time subscriber to THE NUGGET as long as we run it. Thanks. This is the way people should be. Because people differ in politics they should not fall out with each other. During a campaign, when we get on a see-saw with a republican, we are compelled to kick and do our part in order to keep the thing moving.

If you need a two-horse wagon, call on A. J. Anderson, Wier, Ga. They are made from home growth timber and ready for hard service.

Meaders & Sons Interesting Talk.

In the fall of the year, when you are changing the stock from green to dry food, the stomach needs a stimulant to keep it to overcome the loss of the great amount of soft, sappy, food suddenly cut off.

The above change of food often causes cows to almost dry up their milk.

Weakly chickens need a tonic to help them start on their egg producing business.

Hogs, when they are taken off the pasture and penned up, often will not eat enough to get fat, or the food does not do them much good, with the exercise they get.

Under all of the above conditions of stock, International Stock Food remedies are the best that can be used, we firmly believe. It will prevent hog and chicken cholera. It will help materially to save the cow from going dry. It will cause the horse and colt to eat heartily and assist them to get more benefit from the food eaten. It will kill the worms that cause them to droop and their hair to look rough and dead. The packages are sold at 25c, 50c, $1.00 and $5.00. Kept by B. R. Meaders & Sons.

We can mention several people in and near Dahlonega—not off some 1,000 miles—who will tell you that these remedies are all we claim for them.

Wounds, Bruises and Burns.

By applying an antiseptic dressing to wounds, bruises, burns and like injuries before inflammation sets in, they may be healed without maturation and in about one-third the time required by the old treatment. This is the greatest discovery and triumph of modern surgery. Chamberlain's Pain Balm acts on this same principle. It is an antiseptic and when applied to such injuries, causes them to heal very quickly. It also allays the pain and soreness and prevents any danger of blood poisoning. Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your home and it will save you time and money, not to mention the inconvenience and annoying such injuries entail. For sale by Dr. C. H. Jones, Drugist, Dahlonega, Ga.

Local News.

See notice of Marion W. Bowen elsewhere.

Mr. G. R. Glenn, Jr., came up from Atlanta last week to spend a few days with his parents here.

The operation of the chlorination plant down at the Hand attracts the attention of many people here as well as the visitors to Dahlonega.

Bob Davis and Charlie McGuire were fined one dollar each by Judge Baker last Monday for being out late on Saturday night. The person wearing female attire got away.

Mr. J. M. Ashley of Dahlonega, said last week, just after returning from a trip to the Blue Ridge, "New York has its thousands of population and many attractions, but give me the mountains. I love them best."

Mr. A. J. Dockery, of this county, tells us that he made about 200 pounds of leaf tobacco at the foot of the mountain this year, for which he receives from 15 to 20 cents per pound. Among this was a stem having two large leaves on it, something that we have never heard of before.

"Shotgun" Walker was in town last week with part of a load of green beans, raised near the foot of Cedar Mountain. He does not raise as early vegetables as some people but comes in all right on the "home stretch," and brings in more produce than any other farmer in this county.

During Judge Evans' recent visit below, he made arrangements to have the triplets of John Hester, of this county, cared for at the Orphans' Home at Decatur, Ga. This is a good place for them and they will have a chance to grow up intelligently, at the same time have plenty to eat and to wear.

More cotton has been raised in Lumpkin county this year than at any time heretofore. Some of the farmers have to haul it many miles to have it ginned, but if they will increase the acreage sufficient to justify the purchasing of a gin, one will be put up convenient to them in this county. Now if they will look to their interest they will be accommodated next year.

Our sanctuary was visited this week by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Asbury, of Clarksville, Ga. Mr. Asbury is one of Clarksville's most prominent business men. He attended college here some thirty years ago, and took pleasure in showing his wife the grounds and buildings where he spent so many pleasant days in the years of long ago. Yet sad thoughts were brought about when thinking of the many schoolmates that have passed away since then.

The street car company is having work done on the ball park out at the river line this week getting the place fenced and making other necessary arrangements for the football games which are to be pulled off here. The first game will be played Thanksgiving day between the N. G. A. C. boys of Dahlonega and the Stone Mountain Prep. team. Three other games are to be played by the N. G. A. C.'s and other teams here during the winter.—Gainesville Eagle.

We were informed last week that there had been some twelve or fourteen cases of typhoid fever in the house now occupied by Mr. J. M. Brookshire in the last fifteen years, and so stated it, but the gentleman tells us that there has only been six cases—four of his family and two others. Miss Carle's case has proven to be a light one and she is getting well. At the same time Mr. Brookshire is having the rooms all painted and the whole house renovated generally. A new well has been dug and it is believed now that every germ has been killed and there will be no more fever there.

The price of eggs here is fifteen cents per dozen and scarce at that.

Persons wanting shingles should go or write to Hutcheson Bros., Freda, Ga. if Moses Procter, who used to live in Lumpkin county, died in Dawson this week.

That's right. Send in your remittance if you want us to send you THE NUGGET.

The soldiers' re-union, talked of some time back, will not likely take place this year.

The Dahlonega football team is practicing every day, getting ready for another match game.

Mrs. Clark, mother of Miss Josie Clark, teacher in the college, arrived in Dahlonega last week and will spend some time here.

That married woman who has so many admirers is going to get into trouble and cause them to if she does not change her way of acting.

We regret to learn that Prof. Caloway, who was in charge of the public school here recently, died in Greenville, Ga., one day last week.

Dr. W. W. McAfee, president of the McAfee Lind Gold Mining Co., while up at the mines last week, came on to Dahlonega and spent a short while.

It rained again and not a single chimney in Dahlonega was burned out. By neglecting to do this some of you, if not all, may regret it when it is too late.

Mr. Lunsford, who has been in Atlanta having his eyes treated by Dr. Calhoun, returned on Thursday of last week. We are glad to learn that he will not lose the sight of either eye.

It will be well enough for everybody to know that any person, whether he is a merchant or not, violates the law when he gives, or furnishes a boy cigarettes or smoking tobacco.

New Bridge and Price postoffices will not be discontinued until Nov. 15th, as Murrayville rural route No. 2, which supplies the patrons of these offices, will not begin before that time.

The case of Robt. London vs. the Dahlonega & Gainesville Railway Co. in Lumpkin Superior court, was continued until next term on account of the leading attorneys on one side having to attend the State Supreme court this week.

On the fourth page will be found the names of Messrs. W. H. C. Tate, G. H. McGowan and T. S. Littlefield, suggested as suitable persons for three of the next councilmen that have to be elected. They are all wide awake gentlemen and no doubt would do their duty.

One night last week the kitchen and dwelling of Mr. Gus. Arrendale, living in Mill Creek district, was destroyed by fire and most of the contents. Supposed to be set on fire by rats gnawing matches. On Tuesday night of the same week the dwelling of Mr. Josiah White, in Chestatee district, came near being destroyed. There is no body at home except Mr. White and his wife, who are growing old, and not caring to build but one fire, stay and sleep in the kitchen. That night Mr. White woke up and heard something popping like burning boards. He arose, ran to the door and saw that the fire was on the inside of the dwelling. Bursting the door open, he found a lot of quilts and cloth a fire and the blaze running to the top of the room. He and his wife extinguished it by hard work. This house is off from the kitchen and no fire had been in it for a month. Mr. White says that he is satisfied that it was rats with matches, as he has no enemies. All persons hereafter should put matches where the rats can't get to them.

Mr. John H. Moore has bought the Marion Chester dwelling in Dahlonega.

Messrs. Joe Walden and N. D. Jackson finished making their syrup last week, which measured up 848 gallons of a very fine grade.

U. S. court convenes in Athens on the 10th of November, and Marshal Grizzle has been busy for several days summoning witnesses against violators of the Internal revenue law.

Query from Crumby's district: Is it economy for the overseer to only work two hands a day and receive one dollar per day for his services, when he could procure and work more men?

Mr. Bowen, at Garland, has sold his stock of goods to Mr. Parks, his former partner, and Mr. W. D. Abernethy, and will move to Gainesville and go into business there. The gentleman is a business man well liked by the people who know him and will do well wherever he goes.

Mr. Rogers, of the Battle Branch mine, was in town this week. We had the pleasure of meeting the gentleman. He has the appearance of a man of much energy, just such a person as it takes to run a gold mine successfully. He will soon have the water to his mine and ready for operation.

Last Sunday Rev. J. A. J. Dumas, of Pelham, Mitchell county, Ga., was elected pastor of the Dahlonega Baptist church, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Rev. Mr. Taylor, who has gone to take another course in the ministerial work. Mr. Dumas has a family of five children, and will be here the first of December if he accepts.

The Chestatee Baptist Association held a very interesting session at Philippi church, in this county, last week, although the weather was inclement and prevented as large attendance as would have been otherwise. Mr. James Ridley, the clerk, is preparing the minutes for publication now, which will show what all was done when they are published.

On Sunday last a Baptist church was organized at Ashley by Revs. J. E. Blackburn, T. L. Robinson and James Higgins with fifteen members, to be called Enon. Services will be held there hereafter on the 2nd Sunday of each month in the school house until a church house is built, a portion of the money having already been raised. A pastor for this church will be elected on the next meeting day, which no doubt will be Mr. Blackburn, whose services have been the means of this new church being founded there, having already accomplished much good.

We notice Squire Jas. H. Satterfield in Dahlonega this week with his docket for the inspection of the grand jury. He has held this office continuously for 40 years, and his decision in cases rarely ever fail to give satisfaction enough for them to be carried to a higher court. Another thing, the Chestatee Baptist Association was constituted in 1835 and he has held an official position in it for twenty-one years. This alone shows that Mr. Satterfield is a good useful citizen, one who will be greatly missed when his journey of life is finished.

If all the blockaders of this county would resolve to feed their corn to their hogs for one year instead of distilling it, at the end of twelve months they would see a big difference. It would bring prosperity to each one's house and the head of the family could sit down and enjoy his freedom, peace and plenty and not be ready to jump at nearly every object to be seen coming. Then their children could go to school and grow up wise men and women and learn to tell the truth. As it is, many of them are kept away from school to watch while their fathers are stilling, so as to tell visitors when asked, that "pa is out in the mountains hunting sheep."

Some items crowded out this week.

Dr. Howard has not been able to be out for some time.

Monroe Lance, another good citizen, who resided in Chestatee district, died last Tuesday.

James Staniel was fined $20 and cost by Mayor Baker last Monday for retailing liquor in Dahlonega a few days ago.

Mrs. Willie Scaife Crowder, who used to have charge of the Model department of the N. G. A. College, is here on a visit.

There is to be a box supper at Yahola on Saturday night before the fifth Sunday, for the purpose of repairing the church. Everybody invited.

We are requested to announce that there will be a box supper given at the Auraria school house on the night of October 21st, the proceeds of which go toward buying an organ for the Baptist church. Also an all day singing at the Baptist church next Sunday. Everybody invited.

The examination which a little girl witness had to undergo in the court house by some of the lawyers last Tuesday afternoon, was bad enough to make a poor heathen, who you have heard the preachers talk about, blush with shame almost. The court room was crowded with spectators, among them were members of the church who cannot spare the time to even attend church on Sunday.

This is a progressive age. Enoch Mote, of this county, desiring to work the public roads, and believing himself wiser than his parents, made an affidavit recently to the effect that his time for road duty had ended six years ago. But his parents say different and he is complying with the law, but says that he is going to leave Georgia. A man who is so much wiser than his parents in a matter like this can be very easily spared.

Mr. William Wacaster died at his home in this county on Friday last, aged 78. The deceased came to Lumpkin from South Carolina when only fourteen years of age and has resided in it ever since. His funeral was preached by Revs. R. D. Smith and J. N. Austin. It can truly be said that Mr. Wacaster was a good man and we all regret his departure very much, for such a man as he was will be greatly missed. He had 147 grand and great grand children.

Mrs. W. B. Woodward, after being confined only a few weeks passed away last Tuesday at about noon, of that dreadful disease—consumption, aged twenty-one, and was buried the following day in Mt. Hope cemetery. Oh how sad it is for the light of the world to be shut off from a person just in the prime of life. This is the third wife Mr. Woodward has been buried in two years, the last one passing away a year to a day from the time his second one died. We deeply sympathize with the bereaved husband in his great loss.

Col. Ferguson, a leading attorney of Waynesville, N. C., came over this week with Col. Jones, president of the Cavender's Creek Gold Mining Co., to represent him in a compromise that is hoped to be made between his company and the R. R. Asbury heirs. A few years ago Col. Jones bought the Cavender's creek property from Capt. Asbury, now deceased, together with certain water power, paying a portion of the money. Col. Jones did much development work and cut a canal, spending in all about $80,000, so we are told. Then when ready to turn the water on he was enjoined by the courts from doing so, as asked by the Pyrites Co., which expects to get its power below where this water is or would be cut off. And thus it is. Col. Jones has a good gold mine but no water to work it. The heirs want the balance due on the property and Col. Jones does not wish to pay it unless he gets the water. So we don't know what the result will be.

Our town has been full of visitors this week.

Our contemporary, the Signal, failed to appear last week.

Last week it was cold and frosty. This week it has been warm enough to bring spring suits into use again.

The largest crowd of people that has been in Dahlonega since the fiddlers' convention, was here this week.

We were pleased to see the pleasant faces of Messrs. D. M. and J. E. McKee, of Dawson county, on our streets this week.

We are glad to see Col. Price, who was confined to his room most of last week on account of sickness, able to be out this week.

If any subscribers' initials are wrong let us know, as we have entered a number of names and may have made a mistake in some.

At the Drug Store you will find the Sun Proof Paint, which has never failed to give satisfaction, besides everything else that is found in a first-class drug store.

A Mr. Mitchell, of Texas, was here last week in search of a job. He was accompanied by his family. Texas is a great country but it doesn't suit Mr. Mitchell.

We saw two strange things this week. A man carrying the rattles of two snakes he had killed this summer in his hat and a lawyer reading the bible in the court room.

Mr. B. R. Corbin, who went from this county and spent awhile in Texas, told us last Saturday that it was a good country but he likes the mountains and good health the best.

About thirty-five hands, the most of them from Lumpkin county, are at work for the Rowling Lumber Co., cutting and hauling logs to the river down near the Franklin mine, to be floated after awhile to Ball Ground, Ga., and sawed up into lumber.

Col. S. A. Jones, of Waynesville, N. C., president of Cavender's Creek Gold Mining Co. in this county, was here this week, accompanied by two of his daughters, and while here the Colonel paid THE NUGGET a visit, and we regret that we were absent.

On Monday at noon we stepped into Bruce's restaurant to see how he was progressing in his new business and found him feeding forty-eight persons, with every good thing that could be had in the county. Advertising in THE NUGGET always brings about good results.

Let us return thanks to our many patrons for their renewals this week, as well as to new subscribers. We will do our best to continue giving you all a good readable paper. A large patronage is what it takes to make a thriving newspaper and this is what we have.

Uncle Boney Tank and David Anderson were up from Auraria this week. They are both growing old and feeble and are finishing up the journey of life rapidly. They stood the many hardships of the civil war, which tells on them in their declining years, but we hope that their lives will be spared many more yet to come, as they have always been warm friends of the writer.

Many years ago a young lady and man, of this county, learned to love each other, and they got married. The husband turned out to be so trifling and worthless that his wife threatened to swear out a warrant against him for vagrancy. He went to other parts, and by and by got married again without any divorce being granted either him or his first wife. Since that time his first wife has learned to love another man in this county well enough to marry, but the preachers being acquainted with the facts, will not perform the ceremony. Now for the woman to have to wait on the slow process of law by which they can legally marry, and her loving him with all her heart is very unfortunate.

Lumpkin Superior Court.

The Superior court convened here last Monday morning at 10 o'clock with Judge Kimsey presiding and Solicitor General Charters at his post to look after evil doers. After the grand jury elected Mr. W. H. Jones its foreman, Judge Kimsey gave the body a very able charge, going into details, making the duties so plain that none could help but understand what a grand juror means. At the conclusion of his remarks the body retired to its place of business, while the court commenced work and the following proceedings gives what has been done up to going to press:

Reform That Was Too Thorough.

Old Lady Colburn was giving her granddaughter some good advice, the week before her wedding. "Now, it's all very fine for you to have these plans for making John over—if he needs it," said the old lady. "He may have some ideas about reforming a few habits of yours, my dear—but you don't want to go too far, either of you, and you want to be pretty careful what you say."

"When I was a girl, somebody told me the story of a young woman who made the young man she married promise her he would have nothing to do with smoking. Well, that was all right enough, but he'd never been an intemperate smoker, and he missed the little soothing he'd been accustomed to get from his pipe once in a while."

"But if ever she saw him looking at it she'd remind him, 'You promised me never to have anything to do with pipes or smoking when we were married.'"

"Then one day the kitchen stove acted like all possessed—filled the room full of smoke. She said she thought the stovepipe needed cleaning; but he—he was kind of stubborn, same as most men are at times—he just sat there and said, 'I promised you when we were married never to have anything to do with pipes or smoking, and this comes under both heads.' "And she had to go for the stove man herself, though he was a real considerate man, most ways, her husband was. You just bear in mind that little circumstance when you're making John over."—Youth's Companion.

"Mr. Timothy," said a young lady, who had been showing off her wit at the expense of a dangle, "you remind me of a barometer that is filled with nothing in the upper story."

"Divine Almira," meekly replied her adorer, "in thanking you for the compliment, let me remind you that you occupy my upper story entirely."

A machine for milking cows has recently been invented by Victor O. Johnson of Pawnee, Oklahoma. The machine is arranged to copy as nearly as possible the action of the hand when milking. A brace of four squeezers is provided, each resting in a box and all the boxes secured on common frame, but in such manner that they can easily be adjusted to any cow.

Mr. Editor: Please allow us space in your valuable paper to suggest G. H. McGuire, T. S. Littlefield and W. H. C. Tate as suitable men as aldermen to fill the three vacancies that will occur in the city council of Dahlonega next year.

The wife of a New York policeman walked into the station and handed him a letter wherein it was stated that his uncle, James Elgar, of Oakland, Cal., had recently died and left him the bulk of his fortune, valued at $200,000. He was still trying to realize his good fortune when his wife returned in a cab, bearing a cablegram summoning him to Rams-gate (England) to claim the sum of $100,000, which another uncle had bequeathed him. He says he will probably remain on the police force after getting the money.

Heart Weakness.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure has made many hearts well after they have been pronounced hopeless. It has completely cured thousands, and will almost invariably cure or benefit every case of heart disease.

Short breath, pain around heart, palpitation, fluttering, dizzy, fainting and smothering spells should not be neglected. Take Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and see how quick you will be relieved.

It cannot make a new heart, but will restore a sick one by strengthening the heart nerves and muscles, relieving the unnatural strain, and restoring its vitality.

"I had a very bad case of heart trouble. For six months I could not work. Last July I was plowing corn and feeling bad all day. In the afternoon in plowing one row I had to lay down, or fall down, three times. My heart throbbed as though it would burst through, and I had difficulty in getting my breath. I purchased a bottle of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, and before I had used half of it I could lay down and sleep all night. Presently I had to get up from five to ten times a night. I have taken several bottles, and my heart is as regular as clock work. I feel like a new man, and can work comfortably for an old man, 84½ years old."

H. D. McCall, Forest, Ohio.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails he will refund your money.

We have examined the pension roll and find that all are entitled so far as we are able to ascertain.

We have selected a finance committee to examine the various county officers books 'commencing where the other committee left off and to make a report of the same to the next grand jury, the following: T. Also a portion of road from New Bridge to county line. Also road in Auraria district known as the Brackett Ford road. And a portion of the road in Nimblewill district. Two small bridges near Mrs. A. Some of the dailies have had a hard task in getting out on time on account of the Union Printers strike. They are demanding nine hours pay for eight hours work, which is unjust.

J. R. McMichael, a Hall county farmer, has raised a lot of corn this year with the stalks having from 100 to 150 hairs, from two to two and a half inches long. The ladies wearing false hair can be supplied hereafter nearer home.

During recess of court Judge Kinsey spent a good deal of his time in mixing and mingling with his many friends here. The Judge is not only sociable when a candidate, but at all times. It matters not who runs, Judge Kinsey will carry this county by a large majority.

Down in Newton county, a farmer has raised several acres of cotton which is entirely devoid of seed. It yields as well as the other and seems to be a mystery. Others may want to raise just such cotton, but they can't get any seed from this farmer.

Lingerfelt Given Five Years.

The case of Jas. W. Lingerfelt, of this county, charged with shooting J. B. Swancy from ambush a few weeks ago, near the foot of the Blue Ridge, was taken up in Lumpkin Superior court last Friday morning. Attorney B. P. Gaillard, of Gainesville, assisting Solicitor General Charters for the state, and attorneys Lilly and Baker, of Dahlonega, looking after the interest of the defendant. Out of less than 48 jurors the following were taken to try the case: W. M. Dowdy, W. A. Conner, T. A. Beck, Joseph L. Grizzle, James H. Gillespie, Daniel Early, Elbert Patterson, Asa Clements, John Whitmore, Thos. A. Jarrard, R. L. London, J. E. Anderson.

The evidence was purely circumstantial but pretty strong against the defendant.

On the afternoon of the 4th of September, not far from sundown Mr. Swancy was going from his mill to his house with a lot of sacks all in one, across his shoulder. The report of a rifle was heard some distance away in the woods and Mr. Swancy fell to the ground. His yell soon brought his sons, Mr. Kindall and others to his side, and it was discovered that Mr. Swancy had a dangerous rifle wound in one side of his back, the ball passing through the folds of the sacks he carried, which no doubt saved his life. Mr. Swancy was in a dangerous condition for weeks. At once suspicion pointed to Jim Lingerfelt and he was arrested because had blood excited between Lingerfelt and Swancy, caused about some "backings" or low wine that the latters some had taken from the defendant some time before. Swancy had paid Lingerfelt for the "backings" but still it didn't renew good feelings. The morning before the shooting Swancy yelled out something about "backings" as Lingerfelt was passing his house. The bullet patching shot out of the gun was the same kind found in Lingerfelt's shot pocket. The tracks and peculiar heel irons and tacks found where the man had shot and jumped off of a bank corresponded with those on the shoes worn by Lingerfelt. All this and other testimony was submitted to the jury.

The attorneys for and against the prisoner had and did all they could that was legal for their side of the case, consuming the entire day. The jury considered the testimony all through the night, when not asleep, and next morning returned a verdict of guilty with a recommendation that he be punished for misdemeanor. This Judge Kinsey ruled out and sentenced the defendant to five years in the penitentiary. His attorneys made a motion for a new trial. The prisoner was returned to jail, and after His Honor fixed November 11th to hear the motion, court adjourned for the term.

Every one who heard the evidence nearly, say that they believe Lingerfelt is guilty of the charge. The matter rested so heavy on his mind that Lingerfelt talked in his sleep about shooting Swancy. So says the prisoner who slept with him while in jail. The defendants bond was fixed by Judge Kinsey at $750, to be a good solvent one. We do not know whether he can make it, rather expect not.

An Expression of Thanks.

I take this method of expressing my thanks and appreciation to the faculty, the students and people of the town for the aid, sympathy and love shown me during my recent affliction. The human tongue is to imperfect to express my gratitude for this kindness.

The request of the University of Georgia for a United States army officer at the school has been granted, and the War Department has designated Lieut. James H. Kimbrough, Jr., of the Twenty-seventh Infantry as commandant of the University of Georgia.

The Song of the Hair

There are four verses. Verse 1. Ayer's Hair Vigor makes the hair grow. Verse 2. Ayer's Hair Vigor stops falling hair. Verse 3. Ayer's Hair Vigor cures dandruff. Verse 4. Ayer's Hair Vigor always restores color to gray hair. The chorus is sung by millions.

"Before using Ayer's Hair Vigor I had very little and very poor hair. But I continued to use the Vigor until my hair had greatly improved in every way. I have had it grow and on and on for several years."—Mrs. E. S. DAVENPORT.

President Roosevelt was in New Orleans yesterday.

They have several alleged crooks in custody in Atlanta, including two women.

An extra session of Dawson Superior court will commence next Monday to try an arson case.

An election will be held in Dawson county on the 15th of November, to elect a clerk to fill the unexpired term of Rev. G. M. Taylor, deceased.

The day President Roosevelt visited Atlanta pickpockets made their business very profitable by relieving several persons of money, amounting in all to $4,000.

The papers that published the article about the so-called cabbage snake being so poison, are doing the farmers of the mountains a great injustice. The Entomologists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture have issued a circular, stating that the so-called "deadly cabbage snake" is nothing but a harmless species of earth worm, known as the cabbage hair worm.

Readers' Low Prices.

We will sell any article of merchandise in our store at as low a price as any other merchant named, so long as it is not below actual first cost, which is very seldom the case.

Our regular prices, however, are often as low as many special cut prices, and some times even lower. We guarantee everything we sell to be as represented, full weight and measure. We cheerfully correct any errors we may make (we suppose everybody make one now and then.)

We keep medium and high priced merchandise and in all grades and will try to put the price as low as possible.

Call and we will welcome you gladly.

B. R. MEADERS & SONS.

President Roosevelt had many goods things to say about Southern people during his visit south, and praised those who had wore the gray.

Last week's grand jury fixed things so as to make it warm for some of the lewd women. They were under the impression that nothing would be done with them on account of their children, but their children will be either bound out or put in the Orphan's Home, if it becomes necessary to carry out the law.

Mr. W. E. Crockett, of Marietta, Ga., was the first man greeted by President Roosevelt at Roswell, during his visit last week. He and Mr. Roosevelt fought in the Spanish-American war together. Now the former is president of the United States, while Mr. Crockett is a U. S. Deputy Collector.

In Cobb county, a few nights ago a man named Loudermilk, who was living with a woman unlawfully, was arrested by Arch Melton and Grover Allen, claiming to be officers, who marched the man several miles through the woods with his hands tied behind him and then told him to leave forever. Loudermilk returned the next day and had the two men arrested.

Ethel Mincy, the mother of the dead baby, recently found in a creek in Dawson county, has been closely guarded both day and night since her arrest, waiting until she gets able to be tried. Some new developments have been made since her arrest, however, which will likely bring others into trouble. Jim Gooch, the boy who the young mother claims threw the child into the creek, is still at large, but if what we learn is correct, he will be able to prove that he was making blockade liquor the night of the murder and was not concerned in the horrible deed, although he may be the child's father.

Developments enough have been made to cause many people believe that the child was born at the house of the girl's relatives and one, if not more persons, had a hand in destroying its life, and Gooch was not there.

Wounds, Bruises and Burns.

By applying an antiseptic dressing to wounds, bruises, burns and like injuries before inflammation sets in, they may be healed without maturation and in about one-third the time required by the old treatment. This is the greatest discovery and triumph of modern surgery. Chamberlain's Pain Balm acts on this same principle. It is an antiseptic and when applied to such injuries, causes them to heal very quickly. It also allays the pain and soreness and prevents any danger of blood poisoning. Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your home and it will save you time and money, not to mention the inconvenience and suffering such injuries entail. For sale by Dr. C. H. Jones, Druggist, Dahlonega, Ga.

Local News.

The frequent frosts have put an end to low neck dresses.

The jury list for next term of Lumpkin Superior court will be found on first page.

Every defendant fined in the Superior court last week paid up and there is no one in jail except Jim Lingerfelt.

Cards are out announcing the wedding of Mr. Montie Moore and Miss Clifford Castleberry, of Dahlonega, to take place the 7th of November.

Some of our citizens complain of high taxes, and yet they will continue to violate the law and fill the court with business. Such as this is what makes high taxes.

Look out men. Some of you who are in the habit of getting "foxy" on the public highway are going to get into trouble. It is a violation of the state law and you ought to quit it.

Let every blockader in this county quit the business and go to raising corn and cotton. It will pay them better, besides, none of them will have to spend months of the best part of their lives in jail.

Marshal Grizzle went up to White last week and destroyed a big illicit distillery in the field of a man named Nish. The concern was operated by two persons, but when the officer approached both made leg bail.

John Parker, of White county, was arrested by U. S. Deputy Marshal Grizzle last week and brought before Judge Baker of this place, charged with illicit distilling. He waived examination and made bond.

Mr. A. J. Anderson, of Wier, after running a two or three line local ad in The Nugget for a short while to sell some wazons, wrote us last week to take it out, as he had sold them all out. This is another evidence that it pays to advertise.

W. C. Bryant and a Mr. Tipton, of this county, who are serving out a sentence in Fulton county jail for blockading, had to be brought up as a witness in the Lingerfelt trial. The boys looked fat but not saucy, for being mountain men, cooped up in prison, does not suit their taste. This can be prevented, however, by every one abiding by the laws of the United States.

Wesley Geo and a man named Holder, of Jackson county, while on their way to Dahlonega, reported to be full of corn juice Sunday night, let their horse run out side of the road this side of Yahoola bridge, breaking the shafts of their buggy. A little farther would have pitched them down a high bank into the creek and ended all their joy. They footed it to town and got a lively man to go after their vehicle while they took supper.

After court Judge Evans had to have the court house cleaned out, which looked worse than many hog pens that we have seen. The floor between the benches was covered with ambler, goose pea and chesnut hulls and old caws of tobacco as big as sponges children use on their slates at school. Such filth as this should not be allowed in a court room. When using tobacco people should rid their mouths of it when they get into a court room the same as if they were going into a parlor.

Mr. J. B. Stargel, a progressive farmer who resides in the eastern part of the county, told us last Monday that eleven bales of cotton would be made on his place this year, which no doubt is the biggest lot of cotton made on any farm in the county. This shows that cotton will grow here when properly cultivated. Seventy five dollars were paid out for guano to make this crop, but Mr. Stargel says that he will not give it any more. Experience has taught him that he can make his own fertilizer much cheaper, that will do as well as the guano.

The public school building is being dressed up with a new coat of paint.

Col. Price is having a new cottage built down on his lot at Brick Yard Hill.

It's strange. Usually the fellow who pays the least taxes grumbles the most.

The little seven-year-old boy of Mr. John R. Graham died at Two Run on Tuesday night of pneumonia.

The last week's grand jury presentments are published on our first page. They are short, but to the point.

Do you want a new fiddle, banjo, guitar, or mandolin? If so, go to G. H. McGuire, who received a new lot last week, all good but cheap.

Mr. W. W. Crisson left last Sunday to take charge of a lot of hands who are engaged in fixing to transmit the power of Danlap Shoals, in Hall county, to Atlanta.

Mr. Will Rice has been put in charge of the Crown Mountain gold mine, whose duty it is to look after the property and care for the machinery during its suspension until other arrangements are made.

Col. Charters went down to Gainesville this week to attend a special session of Hall Superior court. From there he goes to Dawsonville the following week to try an arson case, and from there he will visit Rabun county's special term.

A gentleman remarked the other day that the local support given The Nugget in the way of advertising by the merchants of Dahlonega alone, spoke well of the paper. Thank you. All such compliments as this are highly appreciated by us.

Mrs. Mattie Harris, of Jackson county, is up on a visit to relatives, being the first time she has been here in ten or twelve years. Mrs. Harris was born and raised in Dahlonega, but has been gone so long that none but the oldest citizens remember her.

There are all kinds of candidates these days, from president on down to bailiff, and last week there were candidates for the position of juror here. One fellow having been heard to tell the sheriff if he needed any tall jurors that he was ready to serve, and the man was not in the jury box either.

About all the criminal cases in Lumpkin Superior court was tried last week except Mrs. Frank Crisson, of Blocton, Ala., who is charged with whipping a boy. The boy is dead now and the defendant was allowed to go on her own bond, which practically nullifies the case. Mrs. Crisson's bond was forfeited at the previous term of the court and her bondsmen went down to Blocton last week and brought her back.

We said last week that no one here burned out their chimneys during the recent rain, but we have since learned that several ladies attended to their chimneys and stove flues. Others have since caught afire and burned out during a dry, windy time. To neglect this matter and let your chimney burn out when the roof is not wet or covered with snow, is a violation of a certain town ordinance. It is very important to attend to your chimneys. Two minutes with a newspaper may save your building and maybe the town.

Merchant H. D. Gurley went down to Atlanta last week to see the state fair and wanted to take a peep at President Roosevelt, but on the morning that he was to arrive there was so many people coming to town that Mr. Gurley thought maybe he would not get out from there in the afternoon and left on the first train before the full rush began. Though, he had the pleasure of hearing the train whistle that was bringing Mr. Roosevelt in. This is some consolation. Mr. Gurley was accompanied by his wife.

Mr. Bill Coocher was over from Union this week.

Judge Reeves, of Athens, and Mr. Courtney, of Pleasant Retreat, came in yesterday.

Dr. Crawford, the dentist, is at the Tate House ready to do all kinds of work in his line.

An inspector has been up this week to see why the daily mails can't always get in on time.

The sentence of Mr. W. J. Burr in last week's court proceeding, should have been $25 instead of $50.

The grand jury of Lumpkin county returned 25 true bills and 6 no bills, which shows that the body spent no idle time.

Hon. N. D. Black, Dawson counties wide awake representative, was up on a visit to his daughter, Mrs. W. H. Jones, last Sunday, in company with his wife.

There was a man in town last week who is drawing a state pension on account of having a hole in his heel, which he claims was done by a bullet, when it is said that it was done by white swelling.

WANTED.—To buy timber and timber lands near the Etowah river and its tributaries, in Lumpkin county.

O. J. LILLY, Attorney, Oct 27 6t Dahlonega, Ga.

The American Mining Congress convenes in El Paso, Texas, from November 14th to 18th inclusive, and among the delegates to represent Georgia appointed by Governor Terrell, Mr. Frank Moore of Dahlonega, has been named.

We had the pleasure of meeting Judge S. R. Atkinson during his visit to Dahlonega last Friday. It may be that Judge Atkinson will be a candidate for Chief Justice later on. He was once a member of the Supreme court and made one of the best judges that has ever sat on the bench.

Mr. John Brackett, who resides eight miles south-west of Dahlonega, tried his hand at raising some cotton this year and succeeded in making four bales. This proves that cotton will grow well here if properly cultivated, which will cause many other farmers to plant cotton next year who never tried it before.

Our job work never fails to please. A lady teacher writing us from Texas last week in reference to reports printed at The Nugget office for teachers, said: "I saw some report cards printed by you and am very anxious to get some for my school. I like them better than any I have ever seen yet and will not be satisfied with any other kind."

Our friend Mr. L. G. Stowers, one of Dawson county's most prosperous farmers, spent a short time in Dahlonega the other day. Mr. Stowers never fails to raise much corn, meat and stock, and last but not least, has been reading The Nugget weekly for three years and has started in on another year. Such men as this are bound to prosper.

Several parties from Dahlonega went out on Thursday evening of last week to the Cavender's Creek mine and enjoyed the hospitality of Col. Jones. A dance was given to those who participate, making it a very pleasant occasion for all present. The Colonel and his daughters have returned to their homes in North Carolina, but their many friends here trust that they will soon come again and stay longer.

Last week John Darby was tried and acquitted of the charge of stealing some gold ore down at the Barlow mine from Bonner and Bruce in 1901. When the jury came out and returned its verdict it was a leisure time for a few moments, and at the request of his honor, the defendant blew in his fists like a steam engine and was permitted to go. It was a good imitation and Darby enjoyed it as well as all present. Then he disappeared with his face covered by a broad smile.

Mr. J. M. Brooksher left for South Georgia last Wednesday on business.

Although the mail carrier from Stay to this place comes and goes a fool, he never is behind time.

The inquiries about the Dahlonega Gold Mining and Milling or Briar Patch Co. will be answered in next week's Nugget.

Persons sending in letters or news items must enclose their real names, not for publication but for our protection in case any trouble should arise.

Mr. A. H. Tank, of Pendergrass, Ga., in sending another dollar for The Nugget this week said, "Send it down this way, I can't make out without it."

Misses Edna and Nellie Glenn have just returned from a visit to their sister, Mrs. M. L. Finch, in Washington, D. C. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Finch, who will remain with her parents here for several days.

Mr. D. H. B. Hooper, City Clerk, Biddleford, Me., in renewing his subscription to The Nugget last week, says, "We should feel lost without it." It does us good to feel that we are interesting our subscribers in this way.

A few days ago Mrs. Woody, a widow lady of Auraria district, swore out a warrant for Charlie Davis, the little fourteen or fifteen year-old son of Sheriff Davis, of Dahlonega, charging him with an assault with intent to rape. The boy was placed under bond and will have his trial to-day (Thursday) as we go to press. It is said that Mrs. Woody is large and stout, weighing about one hundred and sixty pounds, plenty big enough to throw Charlie across her lap and spank him until his nose bleeds.

We heard a gentleman remark the other day, after hearing the Lingerfelt trial, which was caused by blockading, and cost the county several hundred dollars, that he had made up his mind not to encourage blockading any more by signing defendant's bonds arrested for violating the revenue law. This is a wise conclusion, and if every other citizen would make up his mind the same way it would stop a lot of blockading and bring prosperity to every liquor man's house who quits violating the law.

Don't let any one desiring the bridge across the Yahoola, on the Neisler road raised, be worried because the late grand jury failed to recommend this to be done. Judge Evans is a man of much business sense, and he will look after it in due time. As soon as the leaves fall he expects to have a new road surveyed in that direction, going out by the cemetery, and if the route is as good one as he expects the Judge will have the iron bridge moved lower down the river, he says, and save the work on one bridge, and at the same time have a better road.

Mr. Henry Cain, of Dawson county, came over last Tuesday with Dr. West. He had a knot under his right eye and a dislocated jaw and the object of his visit was to get Dr. Jones to re-set his jaw, which was done in a short while. Mr. Cain seemed to have had a streak of bad luck. Some days ago, while sitting in a chair he had a spasm and fell, making this ugly knot under his eye. And on last Friday some two or three boys, whose names he didn't give, had hold of Cain while he was drunk and beat on him until they dislocated his jaw, putting him in such a condition that he could not eat anything but soup. Cain is the same man who was arrested in Gainesville some weeks ago for being intoxicated, and it is said that he told the mayor that he had been drunk nine years, and was released without any fine. Liquor is the cause of the knot and broken jaw, and now that things have been adjusted properly, it is time for this unfortunate man, to quit drinking, as he has already used his share.

By all means let us have a railroad from Roswell to Dahlonega.

Mr. Disney, vice-president of the Dahlonega Gold Mining and Milling Co., arrived at the mine last Tuesday, in company with another gentleman or two.

In last month a negro man over in the eastern portion of the county held his wife for a white man and his daughter to whip her as long as they desired, besides running her off from home. All three will have to appear before the court some time in the future and receive their reward.

W. E. Crockett, U. S. Deputy Collector, came in last Tuesday, who is one of the most prominent Collectors in Georgia on account of being in President Roosevelt's company during the Spanish-American war, and being very intimate with each other. Last week Mr. Crockett was one of the special escorts of the President when at Roswell, and this week he is up in the mountains helping to destroy illicit distilleries and escorting blockaders to Judge Baker's office.

Times have greatly changed in the last forty years. When we attended school the teacher kept a hickory to punish boys with when they climbed trees or did anything that might cause them to get hurt. Now our college pays a man a hundred dollars a month to teach the students every day how to get hurt by playing ball, causing the participants very often to go with a lame leg or arm or a broken nose. Have to do this to keep in pace with the other colleges. If they would name this game work, we feel confident that some of them would drop out of it. We have been a boy ourselves and yet remember how we dreaded work, and can't say that we love it too much now.

Our citizens were delighted last Monday afternoon, more especially the students, from a visit of more than twenty of the Barlow college girls of Gainesville, accompanied by Prof. Murphy, Mrs. H. J. Pierce and Miss Minnie Merritt. They were met at Hall's Villa by Dr. Glenn, Capt. Williams and wife, Miss Mary Merritt of the N. G. A. College and others, who gave them a hearty welcome. They were Misses Minnie Merritt, Louise Ivey, Pauline Hardeman, Robbie Carter, Flora Bullock, Edna O'berry, Fay Twitty, Clare McKenney, Lamar Puckett, Mary T. Smith, Berta Mathews, Kathleen Breslin, Ella Newman, Janis Chandler, Mattie Blount, Emma Whelchel, Mattie Hamm, Esther Smith, Ella N. Ligon, Sallie Deweh, Ola Bell, E. H. Murfee. Soon after their arrival all went down to the chlorination and electric plants belonging to the Consolidated Co., where some time was spent in looking around. That night they were given a reception at the Consolidated Co's hotel by the college fraternities. All the students and many citizens were invited, who were present to help make the fair visitors enjoy themselves as much as possible. It was a happy occasion, one that will long be remembered by all present. After spending half the day of Tuesday they returned to Gainesville apparently well pleased with their trip.

Mining Notes.

Moose and McDonald, on account of being delayed in some manner, did not get the water on their placer diggings last Thursday as they expected. The water was turned on Monday but the pipes leaked till they had to turn it off until it could be remedied.

The 9th of November has been fixed for a meeting of the stockholders of the Crown Mountain Gold Mining Co. at this place, at which time we trust that arrangements will be made to resume work again. It is a good gold mine, one that will pay with the proper management. Any thing would fail conducted in such a manner as this mine has been.

Mr. Heather, of Philadelphia, has been here this week accompanied by Mr. Price, a leading attorney of that city. Mr. Heather has large interests in the valuable mineral property in this section belonging to the Southern Power & Milling Co., and is here looking after it. The gentleman is well pleased with the results of the property now being operated. Big power plants will be put up later on so as to work it on a larger scale.

The bed of the Chatetee river, in this county, is rich with gold, and dredge boats, operated by those knowing how, never fail to make big money. Mr. J. W. Birch, who used to work one in this stream, recently wrote Mr. Geo. Burns about what he found in the river on his property, and stated: At one place I made $900.00 in nine hours work. Of course the Chatetee is not all so rich, but pays well most any where tried.

The Southern Power & Milling Co. cleaned up on their Arnold-Load placer 750 pennyweights in gold from a piece of ground measuring less than a quarter of an acre. The machinery used was the old type in use in this section for many years. The above result indicates what may be expected from this company's 500 acre placer deposit when their new electric power plant is in operation, together with the very latest gold saving machinery now being built for the company. The company are also sinking a new double compartment shaft on their White county property and same is to be fitted with an electric hoist and pump.

The rich ore down at the Barlow mine continues to attract the attention of the citizens generally, more especially those owning mineral property in this section on account of the vein increasing in size and value as followed down, already convincing those interested that it is a deep mine that does not give out as soon as water is reached. One vein, which was only a few inches at the surface and carrying only a small amount of gold is now seven feet, furnishing many nuggets, some weighing about two pennyweights, the only vein yet discovered in this section carrying nuggets, other large or small. In the clean up week before last thirty-four pennyweights were picked out weighing from a grain to a pennyweight and a half. They are stopping some now and passed the body of ore carrying so many nuggets, yet last weeks clean up yielded more gold than the previous week and some nuggets, two of which were about three-fourths of an inch long and three sixteenths of an inch thick, perfect bars, causing much delight among the stockholders who have lately visited the mine. And what adds more delight is the eighteen inch vein recently discovered at another place on the property by William Jackson and a colored man named Pruitt. The ore is full of gold and said by some to be one of the richest veins ever discovered in this country. They struck it overhead in an incline where some one had taken ore from a larger vein, but not so valuable. We are all truly proud to know of such prosperous work as is going on at the Barlow mine.

Farmer Jones, after eating a hearty dinner, stepped out on his porch to enjoy a smoke, when he noticed in front of the house, which was on the main road, an overturned load of hay, and besides it a small boy, seemingly in great perplexity. The farmer, being a good-natured and pleasant sort of a man, went out and spoke to the boy. "Well, my boy, I see you have had an accident; but never mind, lad, turn your horses to the hay and come in and have some dinner."

"Thanks," said the boy, "but I can't pull the hay."

"Oh, no, he won't, come on."

"Nope, I can't, pull me."

"Now look here, sonny; you didn't mean to upset that say; so never mind; there's no harm; come right along, and after you have had something to eat I'll help you load up again." This the boy consented, saying as he looked back at the hay, "but I just know I'll be mad."

After he had eaten all he desired and the farmer had started back with him to load up, the farmer said, "Now don't you feel better?"

"Very much, sir," answered the boy, "but I'll be mad, though."

"Why'll your pa be mad, boy."

"Where is your pa?"

"Under that load of hay."

A fashionable young lady visited a cooking school the other day, where her attention was equally divided between a new dress worn by an acquaintance and the directions for making a cake. Upon returning home she undertook to write down the recipe for making the cake for her mother, and the old lady was paralyzed when she read the following: "Take two pounds of flour, three rows of plaiting down the front, the whites of two eggs cut bias, a pint of milk ruffled round the neck, half-pound currants with seven yards of bead trimming, grated lemon peel with Spanish lace fichu, stir well, and add a semi-fitting paletot with visste sleeves; butter the pan with Brazilian topaz necklace, and garnish with icing and pascamentarie. Bake in a moderately hot oven until the skirt is tucked from the waist down on either side, and finished with large satin rosettes."

Her mother said she wouldn't eat such a cake, and thought these now-fangled ideas in cooking ought to be frowned down.

CITIZENS.

A farmer had a dream. He dreamed that he raised one thousand bushels of wheat and he was happy over the fact. He then dreamed that he sold his wheat at one dollar a bushel, and his happiness grew great. But he dreamed now that he had sold to a thousand different people, a bushel to each one, and that nobody had paid him, and he was mad. When he woke it was broad day light, and leaping out of bed he exclaimed to his wife: "Rebecca, I have had a dream which gave me a solemn warning and I know the meaning of it. I am going right off to town and pay the editor the one dollar I owe him on subscription to his paper." — Hartwell Sun.

FREE TO EVERY CHILD

who is a citizen of the town. People who have little children to be educated cannot find a better location. Bents are cheap and the cost of living moderate. Why not move here to give your children a nine months school term instead of having a short term of two or three months as you now have? The children who complete the course in the graded school enter college here without additional examination.

If cheap living, low rates and a nine months school absolutely free for your children is not an attractive proposition, where will you find one?
